

WYOMING STATEWIDE SURVEY

November 2018

- UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING SURVEY RESEARCH CENTER

OVER TIME QUESTIONS PERTAINING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

- The Wyoming Statewide Survey was conducted by the University of Wyoming Survey Research Center in late October, 2018.
- A second wave of the survey was carried out in November. A total of 619 Wyoming residents were interviewed by phone.
- The Statewide Survey has been conducted by the Political Science department prior to every general election since 1972. University items were initially included in the survey beginning in 1984. This year's survey was directed by Jim King, Department of Political Science assisted by Oliver Walter.
- Positive: Opinion that the University should reduce the number of degree programs fell from 17 percent in 2016 to 8 percent in 2018. Similarly, the percentage of Wyomingites who opined that the state does not have the resources to fund a university comparable to Colorado, Nebraska and Utah fell precipitously from 35 percent of 20 percent in 2018.
- Negative: The number of respondents who agreed that the University has steadily improved during the past several years fell from 69 percent to 62 percent and the percentage who indicated they thought the University was spending its budget wisely fell from 64 percent to 57 percent. Finally, when asked to grade the University, the average fell from 3.24 to 3.14. The average for the community colleges also declined from 3.11 to 3.02.

- Question: In general, the University has steadily improved during the past several years.
