Carnival evaluation meeting- handouts

Booths spaced out more from youth council

Re visit the 60% rules how do we enforce? Some community leaders are granting say an extra community service to replace missed community meetings? When members transfer clubs because of attendance shouldn't that information follow that member and be counted toward rule?

New Business:

Wool Judging Team & Coach Ed Selby—report on 2012 WY 4-H state contest Bailey, Evelyn, Katelyn, Wilson Stewart, won state – expense of going to Texas – Natrona county wool growers will look to them for support. June sometime around the 20th, looking for lady chaperone if no one else Linda Montgomery or Nicole Ziehl. Motion by Rose Jones to support team after they have contacted donors in the amount of $1500.00 – 2nd by Velvet Hiser – discussion followed about “how much support” motion amended to say support as $1500.00, 2nd by Jan McDaniel, one opposed Keith Nachbar

Meats Judging team Coach Jack Stewart- report on 2012 WY 4-H state contest – placed 2nd they have the opportunity to attend the Denver Stock Show in January, some have all ready judged in Denver and are not eligible – we will look at other options to reward these kids

Judging practices – 4-H clinic requirements for 2013 – Zoey represents judging team – they feel that judging practices (4 hours) should cover clinic requirements – possibly attend one clinic at an EXPO – question how many practices are there? Geoellen is comparing to dog classes – with time in place of clinics. Wool practices – 8 practices at 2 hours each plus contestants.

Zoey Taucher – motion made that after a member has completed three judging practices it will count as one clinic for their desirable specie, they are limited to fulfilling two of their three required clinics. Meats will be for beef, sheep, swine, market goat. Horse will be for horse. Wool judging for sheep and livestock judging for beef, sheep, swine and market goat. 2nd Anita McCoy – Terry motion to move to committee, 2nd by Rose, passed

Committee – Rose, Zoey, Taylor, Ed Selby and Jack Stewart need to contact horse and livestock judging coach
