University of Wyoming Operations, Safety Office, will receive sealed responses until 10:00 am (MDT), April 7, 2023, for the University of Wyoming Annual Fire Alarm Testing.

Project Description: Successful respondent will provide Fire Alarm Inspection and Testing of the fire alarm and detection systems to include testing of all components as required by NFPA, including smoke evacuation dampers and systems. All testing frequencies and work shall be done in accordance with applicable National Fire Protection Agency (NFPA) most current standard.

Solicitation information is available via Public Purchase, www.publicpurchase.com.

Only responses submitted electronically through the Public Purchase site will be considered.