Memories of Heart Mountain:
As experienced by former prisoner Sam Mihara

Phi Alpha Theta/History Club invites you to a talk by Sam Mihara, who was held at the Heart Mountain Internment Camps during World War II.

At this talk he will tell the story of his family, why the camps were created and the important lessons that were learned from the experience.

Classroom Building, Room 310
Thursday, September 25, 2014
4:30pm to 6:30pm.

Public Welcome

This event is sponsored by ASUW, the Department of History, and the Wyoming Institute for Humanities Research
