

UW ECHO in Autism Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Corey Jenkins
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education (WDE)
Professional Development Presenter:	Staci Horsley
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	In order for the BIP (Behavior Intervention Plan) to be implemented as designed, an intervention plan should be developed to ensure all components of implementation are addressed. 1. Participants will be familiar with the components to implement and support a BIP to include: Determining training needs for participating members, determining material needs and determining environmental arrangements. 2. Participants will be familiar with how to determine who will implement, in what locations, and how often? 3. Participants will be familiar with how to monitor plans and intervention fidelity procedures.
