

UW ECHO in Autism Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Corey Jenkins
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education (WDE)
Professional Development Presenter:	Staci Horsley
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	Video modeling is a well-validated intervention documented in the behavioral sciences. It has been used to target a variety of behaviors across many areas of functioning including language, social behavior, play, academics and adaptive skills. There has been evidence of great success for its use with individuals on the autism spectrum. 1. Participants will gain information as to why video modeling works with students with ASD. 2. Participants will be familiar with the unique benefits of using video modeling.
