Building the capacity of superintendents and school district leaders to improve district outcomes.

About the Educational Leadership Network

UW ECHO in Educational Leadership will build the capacity of school district superintendents and leaders to improve student outcomes.

Who Should Attend:

Network participants could include superintendents, assistant superintendents, principals, vice-principals, instructional facilitators, curriculum directors, special education directors, state agency staff, and individuals dedicated to improving educational leadership in Wyoming and beyond.

What is UW ECHO?

UW ECHO delivers virtual professional development to support community conversations around best practice in education, health, and disability services.

Benefits of UW ECHO:

- Increase the capacity of superintendents and leaders to implement best practices in educational leadership
- Increases the application of evidence-based and best practices with superintendents and school leaders
- Increases leaders' self-efficacy in leadership activities
- Establishes an effective platform for distance and educational leadership, training and district co/management
- Contributes to the field of educational leadership in Wyoming and beyond
- Attend sessions from any location using videoconferencing technology
