

UW ECHO in Behavior Supports Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education
Professional Development Presenter:	Aaron Stabel
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	Home-school behavior systems increase the consistency of expectations across settings. These systems also link school-based performance and behaviors to home-based privileges and consequences. Consistency and motivation are two elements that can significantly improve any behavior system. 1. Learn the critical elements needed to build a homeschool behavior system. 2. Identify key variables to manage and adjust in order to individualize these behavior systems.
