

UW ECHO in Behavior Supports Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education
Professional Development Presenter:	Aaron Stabel
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	Some students require individualized instructional or staffing supports to be successful in educational settings, and yet independence remains a primary goal for all students. Instructional and staffing supports should be structured to increase independence, and minimize dependence paraprofessionals or specific staff. 1. Understand parent and educator perspectives on transition and student independence. 2. Learn effective peer and visual support strategies to promote student independence.
