

UW ECHO in Behavior Supports Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education
Professional Development Presenter:	First and Last Name
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	Some students require individualized instructional or staffing supports to be successful in educational settings, and yet independence remains a primary goal for all students. Instructional and staffing supports should be structured to increase independence, and minimize dependence on paraprofessionals or specific staff. 1. Learn effective prompting strategies to promote student independence. 2. Learn self-regulation strategies to improve positive outcomes.
