

UW ECHO in Behavior Supports Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education
Professional Development Presenter:	Staci Horsley
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	Social skills training is a general term for instruction conducted in (behavioral) areas that promotes more productive/positive interaction with others. We teach social skills to students who are (at present) socially unskilled in order to promote acceptance by teachers (and other adults) and peers. If our students don't have the skills then we have to teach them. 1. Participants will be familiar with the importance of social skills instruction 2. Participants will be familiar with different approaches to teaching social skills, and the critical elements for doing so.
