UW ECHO in Behavior Supports Session Agenda

Facilitator(s): Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities: Wyoming Department of Education
Professional Development Presenter: Tara Clapp

Professional Development Training
Description and Objectives: This ECHO will continue the discussion on using an interdisciplinary approach to behavior planning and implementation. This week, the focus will be on how to involve general education teachers and paraprofessionals in implementing behavior plans. Additionally, this didactic will review information on how to involve students in their behavior plan.

1. Gain information on best practices for involving and training general education teachers in behavior planning and implementation.
2. Gain information on best practices for involving and training paraprofessionals in behavior plan implementation and data-collection.
3. Discuss best practices for involving the student in their own behavior plan and progress.
