

UW ECHO in School Leadership Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Center for Educational Leadership (WyCEL) & Wyoming Department of Education (WDE)
Professional Development Presenter:	Dr. Douglas Reeves, Ph. D
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	Economic and political uncertainty threatens to paralyze educational decision-making in schools, districts, and states in the early months of 2017. What can school leaders and educational policy-makers do to provide constructive leadership in the face of ambiguity and uncertainty? During this session, participants will share their success stories and challenges and Dr. Reeves share his latest research on leadership and its impact on student achievement. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Contrast enduring values with short-term fads 2. Compare prevailing stereotypes of leadership with evidence on high-impact leadership 3. Challenge prevailing models of change leadership
