

UW ECHO in Secondary Transitions Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education (WDE), Department of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR), and Wyoming Department of Corrections (DOC)
Professional Development Presenter:	Terri Dawson
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	All parents and educators want children to have happy, successful adult lives. There are many decisions about transition to adult life that must be considered by parents, educators, and the teen/young adult with disabilities. This session will look at how educators can support families through secondary transition as partners, while respecting their decisions. Participants will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have greater understanding of parent perspectives of secondary transition for disability 2. Have an awareness of what PIC hears about families lack of knowledge and concerns of what comes next in high school and transition. 3. Learn new strategies for supporting and partnering with families through the process of secondary transition.
