

UW ECHO in Secondary Transitions Session Agenda

Facilitator(s):	Wendy Warren
Collaborating Entities:	Wyoming Department of Education (WDE), Department of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR), and Wyoming Department of Corrections (DOC)
Professional Development Presenter:	Loujeania Baker
Professional Development Training Description and Objectives:	While graduation rates for all students are improving, higher dropout rates among youth with disabilities continue to contribute heavily to the gap between graduation rates for students with and without disabilities. This session will provide key facts to increase understanding about dropout rates and students with disabilities as well as key recommendations for prevention and intervention within schools. 1. Understand key facts about dropout and prevention related to students with disabilities. 2. Learn practical and effective strategies from research and practice to decrease dropout and increase school completion rates for students with disabilities.
