

THE KEITH A. MILLER AWARD

The Wyoming Institute for Disabilities has dedicated our annual award to the founder of this center, Dr. Keith A. Miller. Dr. Miller worked for many years at the University of Wyoming in Social Work before he began laying the groundwork for a University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD) in 1986. After several years of planning, the Wyoming Institute for Disabilities was officially launched in November of 1994, and Dr. Miller served as the director until his retirement in 2007.

Keith A. Miller built his career upon the philosophy that everyone should help communities become more welcoming to and supportive of people with disabilities. It is Dr. Miller's spirit of dedication and desire for excellence in being "a force fighting for people with disabilities" that has inspired the Keith A. Miller Award.

The award will be presented at the annual MEGA Conference.
