1) Notice shape and form elements of various human bodies. Record in your journal what you observe about your own interpretations of these bodies.

2) Share one of quotes from the video with a friend or family member and discuss what it means. Or react to a quote in your journal.