

2015-2016 Highlights

5

Lost in Transition Meetings

Life Sciences, Casper
Teaching Writing in Wyoming and Literature Summit combined, Riverton
World Languages, Casper
Mathematics, Torrington
Social Sciences, Casper

Over 800

educators, administrators, and students from all pK-16 institutional levels in Wyoming and the nation participated in Partnership coordinated and co-sponsored events.

Dues Restructured

This year, the Partnership governing board voted to change the dues structure to expand membership.

2015-2016

Partnership Members

21 of Wyoming's school districts
Wyoming's 7 community colleges
UW's College of Arts and Sciences
UW's College of Education
Wyoming Education Association
Professional Teaching Standards Board
Wyoming Department of Education.

League of Democratic Schools

In 2016, the Partnership became the League's organizational and fiduciary home after the Institute for Educational Inquiry disbanded.

10

co-sponsored meetings

Our Kids conference
NNER Sumer Symposium
UW Fall Education Literacy Conference
UW eVolution conference
World Languages Articulation meeting
All Sciences K16 Summit
American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) workshop
UW World Languages Day
Mathematics Articulation
Just in Time: Excellence in ESL Teaching conference

Over 1,800

receive Partnership news, updates, and invitations through iContact.

56

different school districts, universities, community colleges, organizations, and institutions represented at the Lost in Transition events, the Literacy Conference, and the Just in Time: Excellence in ESL conference.

121

educators

received Wyoming Professional Teaching Standards Board renewal credit from Partnership coordinated and co-sponsored events.

If you would like to learn more about any of the above information, visit www.uwyo.edu/wsup or contact Kara Duggan, kduggan1@uwyo.edu, 307.766.3274.