SCOPE OF WORK

I. Introduction

The University of Wyoming (UW) seeks an enterprise-level learning management system (LMS) to support its instructional mission, for both its on- and off-campus courses. Additionally, as an institution-wide resource, the LMS must support collaborative research, service, and administrative groups within and beyond the university. The LMS course software must be comprehensive, reliable, flexible, and secure. The system must integrate deeply with Ellucian’s Banner student information system to facilitate enrollment and course management.

The University of Wyoming is the state’s sole public university offering baccalaureate, graduate, and professional education. UW is a Carnegie doctoral/research university with high research activity and a land-grant institution with strong missions in outreach and service to the state. Of the 13,000 enrolled undergraduate and graduate students, about 10,000 attend the Laramie main campus, and 3,000 off-campus students pursue their educational goals through programs delivered through the UW Outreach School. For a complete institutional profile, visit the Office of Institutional Analysis at http://www.uwyo.edu/oia/dashboard/.

The UW Outreach School began offering online courses and degrees in 1998 through a partnership with eCollege (now Pearson eCollege). Contracts were renewed with eCollege in 2003, 2007, and 2010; the current contract ends June 30, 2013. The Outreach School delivers courses and degree programs to off-campus UW students through online delivery and audio and video conferencing, as well as other delivery methods. As delivery of online courses has proliferated, so too, has the usage of LMS to augment on-campus courses. In addition to Pearson eCompanion, on-campus courses have utilized WebCT, Sakai and Course Studio.

Below is a summary of LMS utilization at UW, during the 2012 academic year (fall 2011, spring 2012, summer 2012 semesters):
