CALL FOR PARTICIPATION:

Description: Participating in the North American Stoic Camp hosted by the University of Wyoming Philosophy department includes engaging in a rigorous study of the Meditations of Marcus Aurelius and The Enchiridion by Epictetus, in both small groups and large discussions, augmented by guest speakers.

In addition to the more serious study, participants will engage in outdoor activities, including but not limited to, hiking, bonfires, and waking up to watch the sunrise on the final morning, as a direct response to one of the Roman Emperor’s recommended meditations. Hosting Stoic Camp in Centennial, Wyoming, allows for a perfect opportunity to immerse oneself in nature. All meals are included.

The Goal of Stoic Camp is to experiment with living in a thoroughly philosophical way, using the stoics as our model, and to explore what it means to live intentionally.

Preference will be given to participants from Wyoming and surrounding states.

Date: May 18th-22nd

Location: Table in the Wilderness Camp in Centennial, WY.

Registration Fee: $100 for students, $300 for non-students. This fee includes: room and board, the registration fee and some camp supplies.
