Subjects of the Mikado: Sheridan County's Japanese Community, 1900–1930
By Cynde Georgen ..................................................... 2

The Wyoming Municipal Power Agency: The Early Years
By Michael Howe.......................................................... 8

The Landscape Architecture of Morell and Nichols, Sheridan, 1911–1914
By John F. Mahoney....................................................... 15

The History of Electricity in Rural Goshen County: The Wyrulec Company
By Jack R. Preston.......................................................... 25

Letter to the Editor .......................................................... 35
Index .............................................................................. 36
Wyoming Picture ................................................................. Inside back cover