Discovering Her Strength: The Remarkable Transformation of Nellie Tayloe Ross
By Lori Van Pelt .......................................................... 2
Thrust into the governorship suddenly, Nellie Ross had little public speaking experience and significant anxiety about talking in front of crowds. This is the story of how she overcame the anxiety and became a nationally renowned speaker.

Robert Foote: A Forgotten Wyoming Pioneer
By Murray L. Carroll ...................................................... 9
Early resident of Carbon County, pioneer merchant in Buffalo, and key participant in the Johnson County Invasion, yet Foote is practically unknown. What accomplishments make this pioneer worthy of remembering? Historian Murray L. Carroll makes the case that his deeds were significant.

Murdered by Madness: The Case of Geneva Collett
By Larry K. Brown .......................................................... 24
She murdered another woman in a fit of rage in a Sheridan store. What is the story of the first woman in Wyoming ever sentenced to life in prison for murder? Crime writer/historian Larry Brown tells her poignant story.

Book Reviews .................................................................... 36
Deloria, Playing Indian, reviewed by Matthew Dennis
Tate, The Frontier Army in the Settlement of the West, reviewed by Malcolm E. Taylor
Franco, Crossing the Pond, reviewed by John W. Heaton
Arnold, Union Pacific: Crossing Sherman Hill and Other Stories reviewed by Charles Albi

Index ........................................................................... 39
Wyoming Picture .............................................................. 40