As a 4-H club we understand that the University of Wyoming Extension 4-H Program is a volunteer educational youth development program designed to meet the needs of youth in Wyoming.

All programs of UW Extension are expected to practice civil rights compliance. All 4-H clubs or groups must certify that membership is open to all individuals and do not discriminate against any person for reasons of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, religion, political belief, handicap, or financial status.

4-H clubs per the Wyoming 4-H Policies need to have an educational plan that is in line with the mission and values of the Wyoming 4-H program.

The mission of the Wyoming 4-H program is to empower youth to reach their full potential, working and learning in partnership with caring adults. The values of the Wyoming 4-H program are providing opportunities for experiential learning and life skill development. Having a program that strives to create a sense of belonging, independence, generosity, and mastery. And a program that helping young people see themselves as active participates in their own future—setting personal goals and practicing self-determination.
