

Wyoming 4-H

www.wyoming4h.org

WYOMING STATE 4-H LEADERSHIP TEAM

2020-2021

Team members (L to R): StormiLyn Love (Big Horn County), Victoria Peck (Lincoln County), Katie Rogers (Washakie County), Cade Relaford (Sheridan County), Cambree Miller (Big Horn County), Sydney Downare (Johnson County), Zoe Griffin (Sublette County), FaithHoney Anderson (Campbell County)

StormiLyn Love is from Lovell. She is a senior at Lovell High School. She is a nine year 4-H member from Big Horn County 4-H. Her projects include showing pigs, livestock judging, and shooting sports. She enjoys showing pigs all over the state and the nation. StormiLyn is a junior leader in her county and her 4-H Club's President. She is also an active member of the LHS FFA Chapter, and is a part of her high schools wrestling team. She is nervous but excited for her year on the Wyoming State 4-H Leadership Team.

Victoria Peck is a senior from Kemmerer, WY. She attends Kemmerer Junior Senior High School. She is a member of Lincoln County's Hamsfork Hands 4H club. She takes part in a lot of the activities 4H has to offer; shooting sports, cake decorating, foods and nutrition, gardening, rope craft, leather craft. She is also the President of her club. Outside of 4H she enjoys working on her various trucks and cars, she plans on attending WyoTech. She is very involved in all sports, swimming, cheerleading, and wrestling. She is so excited and is ready to serve the state on the 2020-2021 State Leadership Team.

Katie Rogers is from Ten Sleep where she is a junior at Ten Sleep High School. Katie is an active member in Washakie County 4-H; her projects include showing lambs, swine, and competing in livestock judging. Katie is also part of Ten Sleep FFA, volleyball, and basketball. She is an active member in Washakie County junior leader program. Katie is a social butterfly and is ecstatic for the 2020-2021 year on the State Leadership Team.

Cade Relaford is unique because he is the only male on the 2020-2021 Wyoming State 4-H Leadership Team. He was born and raised in Wyoming and currently resides in Sheridan where he has spent most of his life. Cade is a senior at Sheridan High School and is heavily intertwined in both 4-H and FFA. Through 4-H, Cade is heavily involved in STEM, Foods and Nutrition, Gardening, and Rope craft. In his free time he enjoys just cruising down backroads and Main Street as well as playing corn-hole and anything else that is competitive. In school, he has been and is in many honors, accelerated, and advanced classes. Cade is ecstatic and grateful to be serving this year on the Wyoming State 4-H Leadership Team Cambree Miller is from Cowley, Wyoming. She is a senior at Lovell High School and is highly active in 4-H and the Lovell FFA Chapter. Cambree is a Big Horn County junior leader and her clubs vice president. Her projects in 4-H include livestock judging, showing market lambs, photography, and visual arts. Cambree loves to meet new people and socialize with everyone. She enjoys all things outdoors especially camping. Cambree is looking forward to her upcoming year on the Wyoming 4-H State Leadership Team and hopes to form strong bonds with her team as well as other members of Wyoming 4-H.

Sydney Downare is a senior at Buffalo High School and is an active 10 year member of the Johnson County 4-H. Her projects include showing market lambs, Fabric and Fashion, and junior leaders. Sydney also enjoys playing volleyball, FFA, FBLA, Student Council, and junior fairboard. In her free time Sydney likes to spend time with her family and friends. She plans to attend the University of Wyoming in the fall of 2021 to pursue a career in elementary education. Sydney is very excited for the year and the opportunity to serve Wyoming 4-H on the 2020-21 State Leadership Team.

Zoe Griffin is from Pinedale. She is a senior at Pinedale High School and is active in the Sublette County 4-H program. Her 4-H projects include showing swine, goats, and cattle on a national level and competing in public speaking events. She is the former president and current reporter of the Pinedale FFA, as well as a Wyoming Ag Ambassador. Zoe also enjoys music; she is a 3-time All-State French horn musician, the head drum major for the Pinedale High School Marching Wranglers, and an active participant in the Pinedale Theater Company. Zoe's future plans include pursuing a career in veterinary medicine. She is so excited and grateful for the opportunity to serve the youth of Wyoming on the 2020-21 State Leadership Team!

FaithHoney Anderson is currently a senior at Wyoming Virtual Academy. She has been involved in 4-H for nine years, and has learned essential life skills such as public speaking and leadership. Throughout her time in Campbell County 4-H, she has competed in Fabric and Fashion, photography, and visual arts. FaithHoney is also the FCCLA National Vice President of Development and splits her time between those duties, 4-H, school, and TeenPact. She enjoys spending time with friends, hiking, and traveling, and is thrilled to serve Wyoming 4-H on the 2020-21 State Leadership Team!