

ABEGAIL CAVE

PRESS SECRETARY, OFFICE OF
SENATOR CYNTHIA LUMMIS OF WYOMING

Bachelor of Science 2015, Economics and Political Science

Abegail Cave currently serves as Press Secretary for Senator Cynthia Lummis of Wyoming. She is based in Washington, D.C., but spends extensive time travelling around Wyoming.

Prior to joining Senator Lummis's staff, Abegail owned and operated ARC Strategies where she worked with trade associations to streamline their management and create effective communications for recruitment and retention of members. She also worked with political campaigns to create effective fundraising and communication efforts.

Abegail started her career with Senator John Barrasso from Wyoming.

Abegail was born and raised in Cheyenne, Wyoming. She is a proud graduate of the University of Wyoming with degrees in Political Science and Economics (2015). Abegail is passionately involved with Hope Lives School, a school in Northern Uganda that works to educate and elevate children in one of the hardest hit regions in Ugandan civil war. When not working, she is likely training for her next marathon, planning the next hike, or learning a new recipe.
