

KENNETH BRENNEMAN

VICE PRESIDENT, AIMS, GOLDMAN
SACHS & CO. LLC

Bachelor of Science 2012, Psychology
Master of Business Administration, 2017

Kenneth is a Vice President within AIMS (Alternative Investments and Manager Selection), a portion of the Goldman Sachs Asset Management Division with Goldman Sachs, an investment bank headquartered in the United States.

Kenneth was born in Cheyenne, WY and came of age in Riverton, WY. He has founded and sold several businesses, after this serving a consultant/leader to several companies during mergers and acquisition periods and as a strategy consultant to numerous large private companies.

He served in the US Army and Wyoming National Guard and he was honorably discharged, after many leadership positions ending with leading the tactical operations section for his unit for many years.

Kenneth has presented on multiple international issues including inflationary concerns and innovation stimulation to industry leaders, while advising and providing the course forward for multi-billion dollar companies.

Kenneth holds two MBAs from the University of Wyoming and Hochschule Pforzheim University, Germany, specializing in Finance, International Finance, and Innovation management respectively. He also holds his undergraduate degree from the University of Wyoming.

As a native of Wyoming, he has been a member of many athletic teams at the University of Wyoming, including Rugby and Football. Currently residing in Utah, he serves on the Warrior Rising (non-profit) board as the treasurer, which seek to support veteran entrepreneurs. He has a passion to grow business enterprises within Wyoming.