

PAUL TURNER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS
DEVELOPMENT, HECATE ENERGY, LLC

PH.D. ECONOMICS 1997

Since 2014, Paul has lead Hecate's market analysis and early stage project development for the company's utility scale solar, wind and natural gas generating technologies.

Prior to Hecate, Paul was the CEO of Nacel Energy, a boutique energy company traded on the NASDAQ. Before that Paul was a Managing Director at People's Energy, where he led the market analysis and development of multiple natural gas-fired power plants across the US. Paul was a co-founder and principal CornerStone Energy Advisors, which was a boutique M&A advisory firm whose clients acquired over $1.6 billion in coal, oil, gas and hydro generating assets. Paul has also worked for PricewaterhouseCoopers in their utility M&A practice and was a sales engineer for General Electric.

Paul holds a BSEE from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, an MSEE from New Mexico State University and a Ph.D. in regulatory economics and environmental and natural resource economics from the University of Wyoming.
