

TODD PETERSON

RETIRED, REGIONAL PRESIDENT,
PINNACLE BANK-WYOMING

Bachelor of Science 1978, International Agriculture

Todd has been a Community Banker for over 40 years. Todd is a native of Torrington, Wyoming and welcomed the opportunity to return to his hometown in 1997. He was with the family owned, Pinnacle Bancorp over 22 years. He is committed to the Community Banking philosophy and believes it best serves the rural nature of Wyoming.

In addition to the COBAB Advisory Board Todd serves on several other boards including Pinnacle Bank-Wyoming, St. Joseph's Children's Home, Goshen County Economic Development Corporation, (past President twice), Eastern Wyoming College Foundation, presently serving as President and the University of Wyoming's SAREC Advisory Board. He is a long-time member of Rotary International where he is past President of the Torrington Club. He was just recently appointed to the Wyoming Lottery Commission's Board of Directors. Todd is also a 2006 Leadership Wyoming graduate.

Todd believes in "paying it forward" to his community and State which have provided so much opportunity for him and his family. Todd and his late wife Maggie have four children, three of which are UW graduates and seven grandchildren.
