Re: Tax-exempt status of the University of Wyoming

The University of Wyoming is exempt from federal income tax under Section 115 of the Internal Revenue Code. As a political subdivision or agency of the State of Wyoming, the District Internal Revenue Office has taken the position that the University is not required to establish a Section 501(c)(3) status.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Tax Office at the number listed above.

Sincerely,

Casey Green, CPA
Director of Tax Compliance
