

October 5, 2018

-
- 9:00–10:00      Check-In      Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center, Salon DE
The Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center is located at 22nd St. and Grand Avenue. There is free parking available at the building. Following check-in, there is be a free shuttle to main campus, where families may then walk to the Health Sciences Building for the Welcome.
- 10:00–10:10      Welcome      Health Sciences, Room 105
Angela DeWolf King, Assistant Director of Admissions
- 10:10–11:00      Academic Sessions      Health Sciences, Room 105
Academic overview from: School of Energy Resources, Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources, Ecosystem Science and Management, Wildlife Biology Management and the Outdoor Program
- 11:10–12:00      Campus Tour
You will be guided around campus by current UW students with the tour ending at the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center.
- 12:15–1:15      Lunch and Panel Discussion      Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center, Salon DE
Lunch will be provided to all participants.
- 1:15–4:00      Vedauwoo Hike      Turtle Rock Trailhead
Known to the Arapaho Indians as “Land of the Earthborn Spirit,” the rock formations of Vedauwoo (pronounced vee-da-woo) attract experienced climbers, campers and hikers. This area is located off Interstate 80 at exit 329. Vedauwoo begins the Medicine Bow-Routt National Forest and its more than two million acres of public lands.

UW’s Outdoor Adventure Program will be leading the hike through the Turtle Rock Trail. Please park at the Box Canyon Parking Lot.
- 4:30–6:00      Optional: Mini Mountain Film Festival      Berry Biodiversity Center, Auditorium
Dan McCoy, Degree Coordinator for Outdoor Recreation and Tourism Management, will emcee the “mini” mountain film festival.

Films:
A Wyoming Welcome
Capturing Wildlife with Joe Riis
Elk River
Frank and the Tower
Hike Like a Woman