Introduction

Introduction

The American Heritage Center (AHC) is the University of Wyoming's (UW) repository for historical manuscripts, rare books, and university archives. Internationally known for its historical collections, the AHC first and foremost serves the students and citizens of Wyoming. The AHC sponsors a wide range of scholarly and popular programs including lectures, symposia, and exhibits. A place where both experts and novices engage with the original sources of history, access to the AHC is free and open to all.

Collections at the AHC go beyond both the borders of Wyoming and the region, and support a wide range of research and teachings activities in the humanities, sciences, arts, business, and education. Major areas of collecting include Wyoming and the American West, the mining and petroleum industries, environment and natural resources, journalism, military history, transportation, the history of books, and 20th century entertainment such as popular music, radio, television, and film. The total archival holdings of the AHC are roughly 75,000 cubic feet (the equivalent of 18 miles) of material. The Toppan Rare Books Library holds more than 60,000 items from medieval illuminated manuscripts to the 21st century. Subject strengths include the American West, British and American literature, early exploration of North America, religion, hunting and fishing, natural history, women authors, and the book arts.

Overview of Collections on United States/Latin American Relations

Geographically, politically, economically, and culturally, the United States and Latin America have always been connected. Across the twenty-three nations that are encompassed in this geographic region are countless and complex relationships. The purpose of this subject guide is to highlight collections at the American Heritage Center that expose these relationships and offer insight into the networks that sustain the Western hemisphere. This guide covers over 160 collections and 3,450 cubic feet of material, spans twenty-nine countries and reaches from 1714 to 2012.

The American Heritage Center boasts a strong holding of collections related to natural resources and extractive industries. Many of these crossed the borders between Latin America and the United States, and thus a substantial portion of this catalog describes that particular relationship. However, these collections also contain diaries, photographs, postcards, letters, and other material that reveal deeper connections. While extractive industries are a major source of this catalog, they are not exclusive. Besides miners are politicians, journalists, poets, artists, teachers, travelers, and spies. The relationships between the United States and Latin American nations, highlighted in this subject guide, can lead researchers to find connections between economies, people, governments and ideals.

Organization of this Guide

The collections in this guide are organized alphabetically by first name of the author and include the full inventory record including names, dates, sizes, and description. The Keywords given after each entry identify major topics and places, as well as search terms used by the American Heritage Center to identify that collection. Occasional Keywords may appear redundant (i.e. foreign aid vs. foreign assistance), but in those cases the terms used are those which directly appear in either in online records or the finding aid. Many of these collections have finding aids available online through the Rocky Mountain Online Archive (<http://rmoa.unm.edu>). Catalog records for all collections may be found at <http://uwcatalog.uwyo.edu> (for best results, limit search scope to “American Heritage Center.”) Please note that access to AHC holdings is unrestricted unless specified.

Additionally, at the end of this subject guide are a series of indexes to help the researcher identify similar collections. These indexes should be used to begin organizing a research project, and should not be taken as either entirely inclusive or exclusive. The first index is a subject index, which identifies major topics within the collections. The categories in this index correspond to the bold letters following the set of Keywords on each entry. The categories are:

- W- Women authors: Collections authored/collected by women.
- T- Transportation: Relating to formal transportation (roads, railways, aviation, etc.)
- N- Natural Resources: Covering minerals, agriculture, forestry, etc.
- P- Politics: Pertaining to relationships best identified by political leaders or groups.
- M- Military: Relationships that are defined by armed forces aligned with a nation.
- E- Economic: Relationships involving exchange/procurement of commerce or goods.
- C- Culture/Social History: Collections dealing with cultural life and exchange.
- R- Recreation/travel/leisure: Interaction in pursuit of enjoyment, and not economic gain.
- S- Supporting Collections: Collections that are relevant but not entirely within the bounds of this catalog, i.e. relationships between Latin America and Canada.

The second index sorts collections by nations covered. There are twenty-eight Latin American nations represented in this subject guide. Since the United States of America is the common denominator in every collection herein included, there is no category for it in the index. However, there are three categories that are regional rather than national. First is Latin America. Many collections treat Latin America as a holistic unit for cultural or economic reasons. Second is the Caribbean. Again, several nations are commonly combined under this regional heading by collection authors. Third is the US Southwest. This region is closely tied to Latin America, and many collections deal with it as a part of Latin America as well as part of the USA.

Visitor and Contact Information

Current contact information and visitor information including location and hours of operation for the AHC Reading Room and the Toppan Rare Books Library can be found at <http://www.uwyo.edu/ahc>.

A.F. Banfield Papers Acc.# 0343511 boxes

Collection contains maps, photographs, mining reports, correspondences, books, bulletins, and maps on mining in the United States Southwest and Latin America. Includes information on the Chuquicamata mine in Chile, the South American Gold and Platinum Company, the US Department of the Interior, and mining in Aruba.

Keywords: Mining, Chuquicamata mine, South American Gold Platinum Company, US Department of the Interior, US Southwest, Latin America, Chile, Aruba. N, E, P

Adrian A. Bantjes Archive, 1989- 2010 Acc.# 40005720.6 cubic feet, 23 boxes

Adrian Alexander Bantjes (1959-2010) was associate professor of history at the University of Wyoming. Born in Ontario, he completed his bachelors (1980) and masters (1983) degrees at University Leiden in the Netherlands, before pursuing a doctoral degree at El Collegian de Mexico in Mexico City and eventually finishing that degree with the University of Texas at Austin in 1991. That same year, Bantjes began working for the University of Wyoming in the History department and programs of Chicano Studies and American Indian Studies. His book, As If Jesus Walked on Earth: Cardenismo, Sonoro, and the Mexican Revolution, won the Michael C. Meyer Prize in 1997. Bantjes researched and published on topics concerning the religious and cultural history of 20th century Mexico, state formation, and fly-fishing.

Collection contains material from Bantjes' academic career as both an instructor and researcher. Includes syllabi, class notes, research on Mexican history, drafts and published articles and manuscripts, and information about the Mexican Revolution, Lázaro Cardenas, and NAFTA.

Keywords: UW History Faculty, Latin American history, education, Mexico, religion in Mexico, Cardenas, NAFTA. C, P

Alan Probert Papers, 1925- 1986 Acc.# 0810213.6 cubic feet

Alan Probert (1901-1985) was a mining engineer and historian who graduated from the University of California in 1925, before joining the United States Smelting, Refining, and Mining Company for 23, much of which was spent in Pachuca, Mexico. While in Mexico, the Parícutin Volcano erupted for the first time, the growth of which he had been filming for three years before the 1943 eruption. He later worked for the United States Department of State for about five years, and then became vice president and general manager for Compania Minera de Guatemala, S.A. After 1962, he researched the history of mining in the United States, Mexico and Central America.

Collection contains correspondences, articles, reports, films, and photographs of mines and mining in Mexico and Guatemala, particularly the Caquipec mines. Includes photos of a visit by Guatemalan president Cl. Carlos Castillo Armas to Caquipec. Also present are notes and articles about mountain climbing and volcanoes in Mexico, including Parícutin, and his film Volcano.

Keywords: US Smelting Refinery and Mining Co., Compania Minera de Guatemala, Parícutin Volcano, Caquipec Mine, Cl. Carlos Castillo Armas, Guatemala, Mexico. N, E

Some material in Spanish.

Alan K. Simpson Papers, 1911- 2008 Acc.# 10449
362.7 cubic feet, 746 boxes

Alan Simpson began his political career in 1964 when he was elected to the Wyoming State Legislature. He served 13 years in the Wyoming House of Representatives. In 1978 he was elected to the U.S. Senate. While in the Senate, Simpson served as majority leader, assistant minority leader, and chairman of the Veteran's Affair Committee. He also served on the Judiciary Committee and chaired its Subcommittee on Immigration and Refugee Policy, the Environmental and Public Works Committee, the Finance Committee's Subcommittee on Social Security and Family Policy, the Special Committee on Aging, and the Select Committee to Investigate Undercover Operations of the FBI and the Department of Justice. Simpson retired from the Senate in 1997, then went on to serve as the Director of Politics at Harvard University's School of Government, then returned to Wyoming to resume practicing law.

Collection documents the career of former Republican Senator Alan Simpson from Wyoming. It includes press files, research files, legislative records, committee papers, legal work, office files, Senate papers, interviews, photographs, and recordings. Of interest to this collection guide include Simpson's work on American immigration policy, illegal immigration reform, American foreign policy, NAFTA, NATO, the Iran-Contra Scandal, and subject files on Argentina, Brazil, Central America, Chile, Cuba, El Salvador, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, and Panama.

Keywords: American Senators, Republican party, Cold War, Iran-Contra Scandal, immigration, illegal immigration, foreign policy, foreign relations, NAFTA, NATO, Argentina, Brazil, Central America, Chile, Cuba, El Salvador, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama. P, E

Alice Maud Moudy Papers, 1914- 1960 Acc.# 002044.05 cubic feet, 9 boxes

Alice Maud Moudy (d.1961) graduated from the University of Wyoming before studying French and German in Europe. She later taught foreign language at Winthrop College in Rock Hill, South Carolina and Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio. She travelled extensively, completing three trips around the world.

Collection contains travel notes and thousands of slides from Moudy's travels, including Guatemala, Mexico, the Yucatán, and Ecuador.

Keywords: Travel and tourism, Mexico, Yucatán, Guatemala, Ecuador. R, C, W

Allan Francis Bonnalie Papers, 1902- 1974 Acc.# 0585931.27 cubic feet, 63 boxes + artifacts

Allan Francis Bonnalie (b.1893) joined the US Signal Corps in 1917, was a pilot with the British Air Force in WWI, and was a mechanical engineer with South Pacific Railroad in San Francisco from 1922-29. In 1930, he joined United Airlines as a pilot, and became general manager of United of Mexico, Lineas Aereas Mexicanas, S.A. (LAMSA) from 1945-1952. From 1953 until retirement in 1958, Bonnalie was director of United's flight training program in Denver, Colorado. In 1961 and 1962 he made several trips overseas for the US Foreign Operations Administration on aviation matters.

Collection contains correspondences, log books, maps, charts, scrapbooks, and notes relating to Bonnalie's career in aviation. Includes reports on international relations, the America Club in Mexico, US/Mexico commercial flights, LAMSA, and businesses in Latin America, as well a journal he kept while traveling through Bolivia.

Keywords: Lineas Aereas Mexicanas SA, United Airlines, aviation, international travel, America Club, US Foreign Operations Administration, international relations, commercial flights, Mexico, Bolivia. T, E, P, C

Some material in Spanish.

Allen F. Agnew Papers, 1918- 2012 Acc.# 05669543 cubic feet, 543 boxes

Allen F. Agnew (b. 1918) was a geologist with the U.S. Geological Survey from 1942-1955 and the State Geologist for South Dakota from 1955- 1963. In 1963 he became a professor of geology at Indiana University, and became a professor of geology for Washington State University in 1969. From 1974- 1986 he was senior specialist in environmental policy at the Congressional Research Service of the Library of Congress.

Collection contains materials related to Agnew's work in geology, mining engineering and water resources, especially hydrology. Includes subject files of newspaper clippings, reports, correspondences, research, and maps of water pollution, water purification, water quality, conservation, materials on the Geological Society of America (1954- 1974), and materials on the American Institute of Professional Geologists (1980- 1985). On Latin America, collection includes information on Mexican hydrologists, mining in Coahuila, and guidebooks for Mexico. It also details Brazilian minerals, the Planalto Project, hydrologists in Rio de Janeiro, the University of Brazil, and the 1966 American Geological Institute trip to Brazil. These collections consist of correspondences, reports, geological maps, guidebooks, postcards, and city maps as well as speeches given by Agnew in Brazil.

Keywords: Mexico, Mexican hydrology, Coahuila, Brazil, Brazilian hydrology, Planalto Project, University of Brazil, geology education, foreign geology, US/foreign mergers, Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, Bureau of Land Management, United States Geological Survey, UN Economic Committee for Latin America. N, E

Some materials in Spanish and Portuguese.

Alvin Bacon Carpenter Papers, 1870- 1960 Acc.# 07603
3 cubic feet, 6 boxes

Alvin Bacon Carpenter (1870- 1965) was a consulting mining engineer, with extensive mining experience in Mexico and the southwestern United States. In 1911, he opened a consulting practice in Los Angeles, California.

Collection contains reports on mining and mines in the southwestern United States and Mexico, specifically the Benito Juarez mines and Baja California. There are also correspondences, maps, photographs, legal documents, and speeches.

Keywords: Mexico, mining, American mining consultants, Baja California, Benito Juarez mines, American Southwest. N, E

Some materials in Spanish.

Anthony H. Harrigan Papers, c.1800- 1990 Acc.# 04069
65 cubic feet, 113 boxes

Anthony Hart Harrigan (b. 1925) was a conservative writer and lecturer and associate editor of the Charleston News and Courier from 1957-1970. Between 1970 and 1990 he was vice president, and president, of the United States Business and Industrial Council as well as president of the United States Industrial Council Educational Foundation from 1978 until retiring 1990.

Collection contains correspondences, speeches, diaries, "Sensing the News" columns, scrapbooks, photographs, poetry, financial documents, and foreign policy bulletins. Includes articles and presentations by Harrigan on revolutionaries in Africa, US/Latin American relations, communism in Cuba, Chile, and US/Mexican relations.

Keywords: Foreign policy, US/Latin American relations, US/Mexican relations, communism, Cuba, Chile, Puerto Rico, Castro. C, P

Some material in French.

Argo Oil Corporation Records, 1921- 1968 Acc.# 00514
c. 300 cubic feet

The Argo Oil Corporation was organized in 1925 and grew into a major corporation, with oil fields across Wyoming and the Western United States. In December 1961, Argo sold its assets to the Atlantic Refining Company and was dissolved in February of 1962.

Collection contains financial records, sales records, operating reports, tax reports, financial statements, company histories, ledgers, and correspondences pertaining to Argo Oil. While documents are restricted to the United States, several records detail properties in South Texas and New Mexico, just north of the US/Mexico border, and may provide insight into border economies and oil industry.

Keywords: Oil, American Southwest, Argo Oil, South Texas, New Mexico. S, N, E

Arthur C. Hall Papers, 1896- 2008 Acc.# 11698
4.76 cubic feet, 6 boxes

Arthur C. Hall (1909-2005) studied mining engineering at Stanford, graduated in 1929, and worked and consulted with various mining companies throughout his career, most notably the American Smelting and Refining Company. As an administrator with ASARCO, Hall oversaw mining operations in Mexico and Peru from the 1930s to 1950s.

Collection contains business records, legal papers, correspondences, photographs, and maps from Hall's mining career. Includes maps, blueprints, and reports on mines in Mexico and Peru as a major bulk of the collection.

Keywords: American Smelting and Refining Company, mining, Mexico, Peru. N, E

Arthur Powell Davis Papers, 1861- 1933 Acc.# 013669.75 cubic feet, 19 boxes

Arthur Powell Davis (1861- 1933) was a hydraulic and irrigation engineer, and assistant topographer for the United States Geological Survey from 1882-1902. Davis served as the U.S. Hydrographer for the Isthmian Canal Commission for the proposed Nicaragua and Panama Canals. He returned as consulting engineer on the Panama Canal in 1909 and 1915. Davis also worked on the Roosevelt and Hoover Dams, and consulted on irrigation in the U.S.S.R. from 1930- 1932.

Contains correspondences, scrapbooks, and diaries from Davis's life, travel, and work. Subject files include information on the construction of the Nicaragua and Panama Canals with the Isthmian Canal Commission and water resource development in Latin America. Maps of the United States are also included.

Keywords: Panama Canal, Nicaragua Canal, United States Reclamation Service, United States Geological Survey, water resource development, American irrigation consultants.
N, P

Asbury Harpending Papers, 1867- 1916 Acc.# 080431.35 cubic feet, 3 boxes

Asbury Harpending (1839-1923) was a miner, mining investor and financier of real estate, mining, and railroads. His mining interests included gold mines in California, Utah, and Mexico, although most of Harpending's career was spent in San Francisco.

Collection contains chiefly correspondences and telegrams from throughout Harpending's career, some of which pertain to real estate investment in Mexico and Mexican gold mines.

Keywords: Real estate investment, gold mines and mining, Mexico. N, E

Augustus Locke Papers, 1909- 1968 Acc.# 0334830.65 cubic feet, 40 boxes

Augustus Locke (1883-1981) was a geologist and expert on the leached outcrop interpretation technique in mineral prospecting. He worked as a staff geologist for the Goldfields Consolidated Mining Company of Nevada and Cia Minera Los Dos Estrellas in Mexico before earning his ScD from Harvard in 1913. Locke subsequently joined the Secondary Enrichment Investigation for a group of copper companies, and later scouted for the Calumet and Hecla Consolidated Copper Company. Locke compiled extensive mineral studies in the western USA, Canada, Mexico and Cuba, and completed minor works in Africa, Asia, Europe, the Philippines, and South America.

Collection contains research files, correspondences, maps, and photographs of mineral exploration in the American southwest, Central America, Mexico, Guatemala, Peru, Chile, Bolivia, Brazil, and Cuba. The files on Mexico and Cuba are highly extensive with state-by-state reports and photographs.

Keywords: Mineral exploration, Cia Mineral Los Dos Estrellas, Calumet and Hecla Consolidated Copper, Mexico, Cuba, Central America, Guatemala, Peru, Chile, Bolivia, Brazil. N, E

Austin J. App Papers, 1923- 1981 Acc.# 08817

71.5 cubic feet, 73 boxes

Austin Joseph App (1902-1948) taught English and Literature at Catholic University of America and the University of Scranton from 1929-1942. After serving in the army during WWII, he continued to teach at Incarnate Word College and LaSalle College from 1944-1968. He was the director of Boniface Press in 1948, president of the Federation of American Citizens of German Descent from 1960-66, and chair of the Captive Nations Committee of Greater Philadelphia from 1965. Throughout his life, App became more involved in revisionist history, anti-Semitism, anti-communism, and anti-integration.

Collection contains correspondences, pamphlets and research files on topics including communism, foreigners in the United States, immigration, US Foreign Policy, Panama, Brazil, Mexico, and German Jews.

Keywords: German-Americans, anti-Semitism, anti-communism, US foreign policy, immigration, Brazil, Mexico, Panama. P, C

Some material in German.

B. W. Allred Papers, 1908- 1968 Acc.# 01739

6.75 cubic feet, 15 boxes

Berten Wendell Allred was an ecologist concerned with range and livestock management in the American West. He was a botanist at the Alpine Laboratory from 1934-45, where he worked with Frederic and Edith Clements. Allred edited Frederic Clements' work "Dynamic of Vegetation" after Clements' death.

Collection contains correspondences, publications, and notes that chiefly pertain to soil conservation, water, plants, and ecology of the Rocky Mountains and Texas. Includes photographs of the US West, Africa, and Puerto Rico.

Keywords: Water resources, botany, Puerto Rico. N

Beach Conger Papers, 1928- 1967 Acc.# 033051.83 cubic feet, 3 boxes

Beach Conger was an American journalist, travel writer, editorialist, and foreign correspondent from the 1930s to the 1960s. He began as a travel writer for World Letters Inc., a company that developed educational programs to invigorate social studies and geography in the classroom through letter writings. World Letters Inc. sent Conger to Europe and Asia from 1933-34, and to Central and South America in 1936. In 1936, he began working for The New York Herald Tribune as an editorial writer and in 1939 became a foreign correspondent to Europe.

Collection contains news clippings, correspondences, photographs, articles, maps, and personal memorabilia from Conger's travels with World Letters Inc. and The New York Herald Tribune. Includes a scrapbook of his 1936 travels through Central and South America.

Keywords: Travel writers, World Letters Inc., Central America, South America. R

Some material in French, German.

Benjamin F. Hake Papers, 1901- 1970 Acc.# 06977.9 cubic feet, 2 boxes

Benjamin F. Hake served with various oil companies, notably Gulf Oil Corporation as chief of the Land and Exploration branch's production department (1951-53), Special Assistant (1953-56) and General Manager of the Bolivian Gulf Oil Company in La Paz, Bolivia (1956-59).

Collection includes certificates, awards, correspondences, legal documents, speeches and photographs. Contains information on the Bolivian Gulf Oil company and has photographs of Mexico and Bolivia.

Keywords: Gulf Oil Corporation, oil exploration, Bolivian Gulf Oil, Bolivia, Mexico, Nixon. N, E

Some material in Spanish.

Bernard M. Bench Papers, 1941- 1989 Acc.# 00151
.45 cubic feet, 1 box

Bernard Bench was a 1930 graduate from the Colorado School of Mines and Geological Engineer. In the United States, he worked for seismic corporations in Texas, and as a consultant in Colorado and New Mexico. From 1961 to 1971, Bench helped with coal exploration and development in Mexico, as well as Korea, Egypt, India, and Indonesia.

Collection contains mostly professional correspondences with oil companies, as well as a railroad survey, geological maps, and reports on coal exploration.

Keywords: Mexico, coal, mineral development. N, E

Blair W. Stewart Papers, 1927- 1965 Acc.# 07265
32 cubic feet, 32 boxes

Blair W. Stewart (b.1904) was a consulting mining engineer and geologist with the Anaconda Copper Mining Company from 1928-1933. He later worked with Montana Power and other mining firms.

Collection contains reports, feasibility studies, clippings, notebooks, research, topographical maps, and evaluations on mines and properties in Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, and Venezuela.

Keywords: Anaconda Copper Mining Co., Esperanza Man, Central America, South America, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Venezuela. N, E

Some material in Spanish.

C.B.E. Douglas Papers, 1915- 1967 Acc.# 02446
3.9 cubic feet, 10 boxes

C.B.E. Douglas was a mining engineer who spent the majority of his career in Mexico.

Collection contains materials on Mexican mines and mining prospects including placers, maps, drawings, photographs, memos, correspondences, financial reports, and building/infrastructure reports.

Keywords: Mexican mines, Arizona mines, gold mining. N, E

Some material in Spanish.

C. Stribling Snodgrass Papers, 1918- 1977 Acc.# 06571
43.6 cubic feet, 97 boxes

Cornelius Stribling Snodgrass (1900- 1974) was a petroleum engineer and consultant. He graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1922, served until 1926, and joined C.F. Braun & Co. as a petroleum engineer in 1927. In 1937 he started Snodgrass Perrin & CO., later renamed Petrotech. In 1940 Snodgrass returned to the Navy and entered the Petroleum Administration for War to establish a foreign division for the worldwide petroleum supply program. Later, Snodgrass was in charge of the Saudi Arabian Public Works Program for the Bechtel Corporation (1946- 1951), joined the U.S. Petroleum Administration for Defense (1951) and the Military Petroleum Advisory Board (1953-1958), started International Oil Consultants in 1965, was the petroleum advisor to the Sultan of Oman in 1972, and the natural resource advisor to Jordan in 1973.

Collection includes client and project files with related subject files, diaries, correspondences, photographs, and speeches related to Snodgrass's career in foreign petroleum. Includes the Brazilian National Council of Petroleum, SALTE, the Dominican Republic, a trip to Mexico, Venezuela, and foreign petroleum reserves for the United States.

Keywords: Petroleum Administration for War, worldwide petroleum reserve, US Navy, Foreign Refining Co., Brazilian National Council of Petroleum, SALTE, Dominican Republic, Mexico, Venezuela, International Basic Economic Cooperation, International Finance Corporation, International Oil Consultants. N, E, P, M

Some materials in Spanish, French, Arabic, German, Italian, Indonesian, and Dutch.

Carlyle Weiss Papers, 1968- 2000 Acc.# 400021
5.64 cubic feet, 11 boxes

Carlyle Weiss was a professor of Music Arts at the University of Wyoming from 1968-2000, where he directed choral activities and several concert tours both nationally and internationally. Weiss founded the Wyoming State Choir, and in 1977 earned the Outstanding Faculty Member Award.

Collection contains materials relating to choir and orchestra concert tours under the instruction of Weiss, including scrapbooks, slides, letters, newspaper clippings, photographs, tapes, and recordings. Amongst the tours covered are international concerts in Japan, Brazil, and Mexico.

Keywords: UW Music Faculty, concert tours, choir, orchestra, international student travel, Brazil, Mexico. C, R

Charles R. Butler Papers, 1950- 1990 Acc.# 09761
36 cubic feet, 87 boxes

Charles R. Butler (b.1923) was a geologist, consultant, and entrepreneur from Mason City, Iowa. During the uranium “boom” of the 1950s, Butler was involved in exploration, development, and management of uranium mining operations. He became a mining consultant, and later conducted courthouse and field land studies to determine land status of mining properties on public, private, and Indian lands. He was active for over forty years in southwest Colorado and worked as a mining geologist in all the western states (including Alaska), as well as Canada and Mexico.

Collection contains correspondences, mining records, land status reports, maps, and information on public land policies. Although Butler mined in Mexico, collection does not contain direct information on those years, but does provide material on mining in the American southwest and near the border.

Keywords: Uranium mining, US West, Walter Duncan Mining Co., Navajo people.

Charles Joseph Hares Papers, 1915- 1962 Acc.# 03508
32.07 cubic feet, 76 boxes

Charles Joseph Hares (b. 1881) graduated from Syracuse University and held a fellowship in geology at the University of Chicago. From 1910-1917, he worked for the United States Geological Survey completing field surveys for coal and oil in the West. In 1917, he joined the Ohio Oil Company as its first full-time geologist, and remained there until retiring in 1946. Hares was the author of several geologic treatises, and instrumental in starting the Wyoming Geological Association and the Rocky Mountain section of the Geological Society of America.

Collection contains maps, graphs, correspondences, telegraphs, photographs, and reports relating to geological surveys by Hares, including those of Mexico, Venezuela, and South America. Also present are surveys for the American West, newspaper clippings, and biographical information.

Keywords: United States Geological Survey, Ohio Oil Company, Wyoming Geological Association, Geological Society of America, Mexico, Venezuela, South America. N, P, E

Charles G. Preble Papers, 1902- 2002 Acc.# 12574
1.38 cubic feet, 2 boxes

Charles G. Preble was President and Chief Executive Officer of the Southern Peru Copper Corporation. He started with SPCC in 1965 at the Toquepala Mine and worked up from Mine Foreman to Area Manager. Preble was named Vice President of the

Corporation in 1981, Executive Vice President in 1983, and President and Chief Executive Officer in 1985.

Collection contains blueprints, magazines, geologic reports, histories, financial reports, and annual reports on the Southern Peru Copper Corporation, specifically the Toquepala and Cuajone copper mines.

Keywords: Peru, Southern Peru Copper Corporation, copper mines, American companies in Peru, Toquepala Copper Mine, Cuajone Copper Mine. N, E

Some materials in Spanish.

Charles Edwin Riddell Papers, 1881- 1972 Acc.# 05271

7.2 cubic feet, 16 boxes

Charles Edwin Riddell (b.1914) graduated from Stanford University with a BS in Geology in 1937 before working as a petroleum and mining geologist with United Geophysical Company, Inc. in the Western US, Pakistan, and Brazil from 1937-52. From 1953-56, Riddell was an exploration manager for British American Oil Producing Co. in the Western United States, and became a geological consulting after 1956.

Collection contains correspondences, leases, reports, and oil well logs of the Western United States and South America, and includes several maps of South America.

Keywords: Petroleum geology, Western United States, South America, Brazil. N, E

Some material in Portuguese.

Charles DeWitt Smith Papers, 1927- 1979 Acc.# 07722

35.65 cubic feet, 97 boxes

Charles DeWitt Smith (b.1917) graduated from Yale in 1938 before pursuing a career as a mining engineer. From 1946-57, he worked as Superintendent of Mines and Assistant Vice President for the St. Joseph Lead Company of Missouri. Smith was later the vice president of Copper Range Company of Boston from 1957-58 and a mining consultant from 1959-62 before founding his own consulting firm DeWitt Smith and Company, Inc.

Collection contains correspondences, clippings, and diaries pertaining to mining operations in the US southwest, Mexico, and South America. Also includes papers presented at the 1974 World Mining Congress in Lima, Peru, and reports on banking and tourism published by the Peruvian government.
