

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING

American Heritage Center

American Heritage Center 2022 Travel Grants

The American Heritage Center at the University of Wyoming offers ten annual travel grants to be used by scholars. The grants are for up to $750 each and provide support for travel, food and lodging to carry out research using the American Heritage Center's collections. Subject areas include: Wyoming and the Rocky Mountain West and a select number of national topics: environment and conservation, mining and petroleum industries, air and rail transportation, popular entertainment (particularly radio, television, film and popular music), journalism, U.S. military history. The Toppan Rare Book Library has book history.

Persons interested in such grants should complete the following application:

(Applications due: March 31, 2022)

Applicant Full Name:
Phone Number:
Address:
Email Address:
Degree(s):
University(s) and Graduation Dates(s):
Institutional Affiliation:
After you complete your research at the AHC, would you be willing to contribute a blog post on your current project or another topic of personal interest? If so, please indicate the topic:
Please list name, address, relationship and telephone number of at least two individuals familiar with your work and your research efforts who could serve as references.
Please attach a brief description of your project, indicate any publication plans for your project, specify how AHC travel grant funds will be spent, and which American Heritage Center collections you would use and how those collections support your work.
Email your application and current resume to: Leslie Waggener lwaggen2@uwyo.edu American Heritage Center Dept. 3924, 1000 E. University Avenue, Laramie, WY 82071	