

University of Wyoming-
American Heritage Center

Guide to the

Edward Bloesch Collection

Accession # 2117

copy

December 14, 1966

THE EDWARD BLOESCH COLLECTION

RECEIPT for gift received of Dr. Edward Bloesch:

ARTICLES written by Dr. Edward Bloesch: (Alphabetical by Title)

- "Oil Development in Kansas", Petroleum Royalties, July 1937.
- "Oil Geology in the Okmulgee District", The OKEH, March 1920.
- "Overproduction?", The Royalty Age, March 1932.
- "Present Production and Future Possibilities of Oil in Germany", International Petroleum Technology, June 1931.

REPRINTS written by Dr. Edward Bloesch: (Alphabetical by Title)

- "Arbuckle Production And Prospects in Northeastern Oklahoma"
- "Cost of Producing Oil"
- "Enforcement of Existing Gas Waste Laws Would Prevent Overproduction"
- "Geological Notes - Fort Scott-Wetumka Correlation"
- "Internationalen Zeitschrift fur Bohrtechnik, Erdol-bergbau und Geologie"
- "North-South Correlation of the Pennsylvanian of Oklahoma."
- "Observations On Oklahoma Gravel Deposits"
- "Observations On Post-Permian Deposits in North-Central Oklahoma."
- "Oil And Gas in Oklahoma"
- "Oil Mining"
- "Petroleum Investigations in Switzerland"
- "Remarks on Subsurface Contouring"
- "Unconformities in Oklahoma And Their importance in Petroleum Geology"
- "Value of Oil Geology in the Mid-Continent Field"
- "Zur Tektonik der Front Range in Colorado"

(Signed)

Gene M. Gressley
Director