

University of Wyoming-American Heritage Center

Guide to the William J. Steinhoff Collection

Accession # 2292

dea 110 2792

April 26, 1967

THE WILLIAM J. STEINHOFF COLLECTION RECEIPT for gift received of William J. Steinhoff:

(This collection is on Permanent Loan)

BRAND BOOK:

This is one of the first Brand books published by the Colorado Cattle Growers Association. It was given to Charles Camp, by Tom Horn, the day he was hung. Charles Camp, a Weld County, Colorado rancher, gave it to W. J. Rowe a prominent Weld County rancher and State Brand inspector. This book was inherited to W. J. Steinhoff, grandson of W. J. Rowe.

.

(Signed) Gane M. Gressley Director

GMG:bj1

.