

University of Wyoming-
American Heritage Center

Guide to the

First Seneca Bank & Trust Company
Collection

Accession # 3512

Acc. No. 3512

March 24, 1971

copy

THE FIRST SENECA BANK & TRUST COMPANY COLLECTION

RECEIPT for the gift received of Mr. Joseph S. Harvey:

SCENIC PRINTS:

12 historical scenes in the area of Venango, Clarion, Mercer and Butler Counties, Pennsylvania:

Overage photo

Buttermilk Falls-----Clarion County
Caldwell One Room School-----Mercer County
Clarion County Court House and Jail-----Clarion County
Drake Well-----Venango County
Harbison Chapel at Grove City College---Mercer County
Horse Creek Iron Furnace-----Venango County
Johnston's Tavern-----Mercer County
McClintock No. 1, World's oldest producing oil well---
Venango County
The Narrows-----Clarion County
The Old Stone House-----Butler County
The Pierce Lock (No. 10)-----Mercer County

ANNUAL REPORT:

Bank - Masfile
(Ex 96 - 506)
100 - found
E. & M.

First Seneca Bank Annual Report---100th Anniversary, 1970

(Signed) _____

Gene M. Gressley,
Director

GMG/ees

Acc. 3512

copy

May 12, 1971

THE FIRST SENECA BANK & TRUST COMPANY COLLECTION

RECEIPT for the gift received of Mr.
Joseph S. Harvey:

MISCELLANEOUS:

Plastic paper weight containing a vial
of crude oil from the world's oldest producing well, McClintock No. 1, drilled over 100 years ago. First Seneca Bank was organized near this same era in 1871. We take pride in 100 years of progress and look forward to our second century of growth.

(Signed)

Gene M. Gressley,
Director

GMG/ees

Acc. 2512

5084

October 14, 1971

THE FIRST SENECA BANK & TRUST COMPANY COLLECTION

RECEIPT for the gift received of Mr.
Joseph S. Harvey:

Cat. Harvard

BOOK:

Martens, Charles D., THE OIL CITY, a history, commissioned by the First Seneca Bank and Trust Company. 1971.

(Signed)

Gene M. Gressley,
Director

GMG/ees