CAPTAIN CHANCE L. WESSEL

Capt. Chance L. is the Recruiting Officer and Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies, Air Force ROTC Detachment 940, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming. He is responsible for recruiting and accession efforts throughout the region, conducting community outreach, promoting Air Force ROTC scholarship opportunities, and advising prospective cadets on program eligibility and commissioning pathways. As an Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies, he instructs undergraduate courses in leadership, officership, and the foundations of the United States Air Force and United States Space Force, preparing cadets for service as commissioned officers.

Capt. Wessel graduated from the United States Air Force Academy and was commissioned as a second lieutenant in 2019. Following commissioning, he served in a variety of Logistics Readiness Officer assignments, including Fuels Flight Commander and Installation Deployment Officer. Prior to his current assignment, he served as Director of Operations, 438th Supply Chain Operations Squadron, Joint Base Langley-Eustis, Virginia, where he led logistics operations supporting installation and global mobility mission requirements.
