

Glenn Parker, BA '22, LLB '34, Justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court, won the Outstanding Alumni Award for 1958. He accepts the Shaeffer pen and pencil set presented to him by Robert H. Johnson, outgoing president of the Alumni Association, while Douglas C. Hutton, newly elected president, looks on.

Major event of Homecoming not covered by pictures was the reunion of the fifty year and more graduates. (Unfortunately this year pictures of this group were lost.) Those who attended the events, including a special dinner given by President and Mrs. Humphrey in their honor, were Mrs. Margaret Irvine, Mrs. Mabel Moudy, Mrs. Sophia Davis, and Mrs. Margaret Smith Bowman, Herbert Kennedy, E. E. Fitch, H. H. Houston, and Robert E. Guild.

Winner of the Sing in the men's division was Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Mary Osborne, representative of Knight Hall, was Queen's attendant.

Dick Rasmussen, representative of Tau Kappa Epsilon, who accepted the Grand Prize last year for his fraternity, passes it on to Lael Hoopes, representative of Lambda Delta Sigma, who won it this year. Robert H. Johnson, outgoing president of the Alumni Association, looks on.

Members of the classes of 1933 and 1948 held reunions in Knight Hall Saturday noon of Homecoming this year. Alex Johnson, class of 1933 (far right) was Master of Ceremonies for the luncheon for his class.

Members of the Student Army Training Corps of 1918 got together for the first time since they left the campus 40 years ago, for a dinner Saturday evening. Approximately 40 people, including wives, attended the dinner. Left to right, in the picture are Ray Redmond, who was an instructor for the groups while they were in SATC, Dr. Robert H. Burns, who was master of ceremonies; Paul Stout of Littleton, who made arrangements, and Mrs. Redmond. A World War II Army group, who left the campus for Camp Wolters in 1943, also held a reunion dinner. (All pictures this page, courtesy UW Photo, Pownall.)

