

JOB OPENING:

Assistant Farm Manager

University of Wyoming
SAREC Research and Extension Center
Lingle, Wyoming

- Assist with all duties involved with the UW Research and Extension Center. Including: production cow herd calving, breeding, pasture management, implementation of health protocols; feedlot health, ration management, record keeping, GrowSafe testing; and all production and small plot research farming activities.
- Work as liaison with feed mills, substations, and related agricultural supply companies.
- Operate, maintain, and repair equipment used in agriculture and farming.
- Assist faculty in conducting research and data collection.
- Work as a Team Member, sharing responsibilities of the SAREC station with the entire crew.

To view a complete job description and to submit your application visit the University of Wyoming Human Resources Talent Acquisition page.

<http://www.uwyo.edu/hr/talent-acquisition/index.html>

This is a full time, benefitted position.

For more information please call 307-837-2000