

TRANSFORMING LEARNING

2013 SUMMER
TEACHING INSTITUTE
JULY 21-26

Art and Science Collaborative: Investigating the Natural World

GENERAL INFO:

Dates: July 21-26, 2013

Location: University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY

Credit available: 3 credits of PTSB certification or UW Continuing Education credit

WHO CAN BENEFIT FROM THIS INSTITUTE?

- K-12 teachers: arts education specialists, general elementary classroom teachers, discipline specific teachers at the secondary level, special education teachers
- Community educators: Boys and Girls clubs, Parks and Recreation programs, senior centers, museums, libraries, and more

JOIN US AS WE EXPLORE TWO MAJOR THEMES:

- Using art and nature as inspiration for teaching and learning
- Building school and community partnerships for art education

COST:

- Individuals - $150 per person, $50 non-refundable pre-registration fee
- Partners - $150 for first, $125 for second partner, $100 for any additional partners, $50 non-refundable pre-registration fee for each partner, all partners must register together.

The registration fee is deducted from the total cost of the Institute. Lunch and snacks are included daily. Participants are responsible for their own breakfast and evening meals, room, and travel costs.

TOP: Gerald Lang (American, b. 1945) and Jennifer Anne Tucker (American, b. 1939), Echinacea Cone Echinacea purpurea, archival pigment ink digital print, courtesy of the artists

BOTTOM: Former participants of the Summer Teaching Institute work on their artwork in the studio

DESCRIPTION:

This summer's institute will consider how art and science intersect as investigative processes. We'll explore a variety of materials and methods that might be used in art and science classrooms as the means for looking at the natural world. UW Photography Instructor Bailey Russell will guide participants in creating Cyanotype and Van Dyck prints in the Art Department's new photography lab. Visiting artists Gerald Lang and Jennifer Anne Tucker offer a contemporary rethinking of traditional documentation of plants using their exhibition, The Botanical Series, on view at the Art Museum. These prints combine Lang's digital printing expertise with Tucker's research and practice as a herbalist. Ann Simpson Art-mobile Curator Tessa Dallarosa will introduce the newest exhibition to travel Wyoming, which is focused on abstract landscapes in a variety of media. Art Museum Master Teacher Heather Bender will introduce ways that art and science come together using inquiry processes that encourage deep looking.

Studio time is included every afternoon to explore new materials and ideas inspired by the original artwork, objects and books you will encounter. Whether you have no studio experience, or are an accomplished artist, this 5-day workshop sets the stage for developing new skills and deepening creative experiences with familiar skills.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Contact Wendy Bredehoft at the UW Art Museum, (307) 766-3496 or wbredeho@uwyo.edu.

TO REGISTER:

By mail: Check or purchase order accepted. Complete the attached registration form and return to:

UW Fine Arts Outreach
Department 3951, 1000 E. University Avenue
Laramie, WY 82071

By phone or e-mail: Credit card only. Complete the attached registration form and email to Janelle Kilmer at UW Fine Arts Outreach, janelle@uwyo.edu.

Registration questions? Call Janelle at (307) 766-5139 or email janelle@uwyo.edu.

TOP: Participants in the 2011 Summer Teaching Institute work on drawings in the studio

BOTTOM: Stanley Jan Twardowicz (American, 1917-2008), Landscape, not dated, woodcut, 6-15/16 x 10-1/16 inches, gift of Mr. Keith Barish, University of Wyoming Art Museum Collection, 1979.291

Registration Form:

Transforming Learning: The 2013 Summer Teaching Institute

Please include a complete form for each participant.

Name:

Home address:

Phone number/s:

E-mail address:

School or organization and address:

Ages you teach:

Primary discipline:

Please check: Individual registration

Partnership registration
Names of partners:

Cost: Individual - $150
Partners - $150 for first, $125 for second, $100 for all others

Payment:

Check: check number _____

Purchase order: PO number _____

Do you have any special requirements or food allergies?

Note: We will open this year's Summer Teaching Institute with a gathering for barbecue at the home of Art Museum Director, Susan Moldenhauer, on Sunday, July 21 beginning at 5 pm.

Do you plan to attend? Yes No

Housing needs:

Please register me to stay in the dorms ($20/night)

I will make my own hotel arrangements.

I will make my own other arrangements.