

SENATE BILL #1152

Title: Appropriation to the University Student Grotto (USG) to host the Rocky Mountain Regional National Speleological Society Convention (RMRNSSC).

Codification Number:

Introduced: April 27, 1976

Thesis: The USG has volunteered to host the Second Annual RMRNSSC. Funds are thus necessary to meet expenses.

Sponsor: Alan O'Hashi

1. Be it enacted by the Student Senate of the Associated Students of the
2. University of Wyoming that $350.00 be allocated to the University Student
3. Grotto to host the Rocky Mountain Regional National Speleological Society
4. Convention (hereafter referred to as RMRNSSC). The RMRNSSC is scheduled for
5. Labor Day weekend at a free campground in Big Horn County, Wyoming. A fee
6. per plate dinner will be collected at the traditional banquet to cover expenses,
7. but money will be needed for initial financing (ASUW will be reimbursed for
8. banquet expenditures.) One or two speakers selected from within the Rocky
9. Mountain area will be invited to lecture. A guide to convention activities
10. will also be printed for the participants. Funds for publicity and unforeseen
11. contingency supplies will be needed. Therefore, be it enacted that $350.00
12. be allocated to the USG for financing the RMRNSSC to be spent as follows:

13.	Publicity	$ 25.00
14.	Speaker(s)	100.00 (maximum)
15.	Banquet	100.00
16.	Printing	75.00
17.	Supplies	50.00
18.	Total	$ 350.00
