

SENATE BILL #1289

Title: Academic Calendar

Codification Number:

Introduced: January 8, 1979

Thesis: Shortening the Academic Calendar

Sponsor: Randall Luthi

1. Be it enacted by the Student Senate of the Associated Students of the
2. University of Wyoming whereas: the students have demonstrated a need for
3. the revision of the current academic calendar, and whereas: there is no
4. violation of state, federal or accreditation guidelines by shortening the
5. academic calendar, and whereas the shortening of the academic calendar would
6. be a benefit to many students and make our calendar consistent with most
7. universities in the Rocky Mountain Region; that the current academic calendar
8. of the University be shortened by five (5) days: the five days shall be
9. dropped from the end of the Fall Semester and the end of the Spring Semester.

Referred to: Academic Affairs

Date of Passage: January 23, 1979

Signed: Clara M. Bowring
