SENATE BILL #1777

Title: ASUW Fee Increase

Date: September 30, 1994

Authors: Budget and Planning Committee

Sponsors: Senators Catchpole, Cotton, Friedl, Kalasinsky,
              Krug, and Mathes

1   WHEREAS, the ASUW fee has not been increased since 1982; and

2   WHEREAS, the costs associated with funding ASUW programs and

3   services significantly increase with every fiscal year; and

4   WHEREAS, the variety and scope of ASUW programming and

5   services have broadened significantly since the last fee

6   increase; and

7   WHEREAS, the base population of fee-paying students has

8   declined from over 8500 to less than 8250 students, further

9   constricting the ASUW budget; and

10   WHEREAS, ASUW funded salaries have increased by $37,123

11   since 1989; and

12   WHEREAS, the ASUW Budget and Planning Committee was forced

13   to remove over $80,000 from the ASUW Reserve in order to 14   balance the budgets for fiscal years 1994 and 1995;

15   THEREFORE, be it enacted by the Associated Students of the

16   University of Wyoming Senate that the ASUW fee be raised

17   from $16.75 to $25.00 per semester for fiscal year 1996; and

18   THEREFORE be it further enacted that the ASUW Budget and

19   Planning Committee be required to review and report to the

20   ASUW Senate on the adequacy of the amount of the ASUW fee

21   not less than every two years (see addendum).
