

SENATE BILL #2279

Title: Finance Policy Revision

Date: March 4, 2010

Authors: Senator Rader

Sponsors: Constitution Committee

1. WHEREAS, the finance policy of the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming
2. (ASUW) was recently revised; and
3. WHEREAS, these revisions have caused the inability for the SafeRide Program to fund
4. their RSO sidekick incentive program; and
5. WHEREAS, these incentives have generated high and beneficial participation for the
6. Program.
7. THEREFORE, be it enacted that the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming
8. (ASUW) that the ASUW Finance Policy Section 3, Subsection A, Number 1, Clause a,
9. Sub-clause i, be amended to reflect the language as seen in Addendum A.

Referred to: Budget and Planning Committee

Date of Passage: 03/23/10 Signed: Danae Hungie

(ASUW Chairperson)

"Being enacted on _____, I do hereby sign my name hereto and approve this Senate action." VETO

ASUW President

Addendum A

Section III. General Guidelines for Allocations to Recognized Student Organizations

- A. Potential benefits available to a significant and diverse population of the ASUW membership shall be an important factor when considering requests for financing activities or events by recognized student organizations (RSOs).
 - 1. RSOs may only receive ASUW funding from the RSO Funding Board.
 - a. The ASUW Senate through the RSO Funding Board, processes sole authority to allocate ASUW funds directly to RSOs.
 - i. No other ASUW program, service, governing board, or any other ASUW entity (except Special Projects and the SafeRide RSO Sidekick Incentive Program) shall have the authority to allocate any ASUW funds directly to an RSO.
 - b. If an ASUW program or service wishes to forfeit a portion of its allocated budget to support RSO programming it may transfer those funds to the RSO Funding Board.
 - i. Funds transferred to the RSO Funding Board from any ASUW program or service become part of the general fund of the RSO Funding Board.
 - ii. The ASUW entity that forfeits the funds shall have no influence on the group nor program to which the transferred funds are reallocated to via the RSO Funding Board.