

SENATE RESOLUTION #1918

Title: Academic Plan Statement

Date: April 20, 1999

Authors: President Hammons, Executives Calvert, Esquibel, Hande, McConnell, and Senator Cindy Reed

Sponsors: Senators Craft, Plemmons, and Cindy Reed

1. WHEREAS, every student has a vested interest in academic excellence provided
2. at the University of Wyoming; and
3. WHEREAS, academic review and evaluation are necessary to maintain and improve
4. educational standards; and
5. WHEREAS, the Office of Academic Affairs initiated an academic planning process
6. during the Summer of 1998; and
7. WHEREAS, the second draft of the Academic Plan was released on April 20, 1999; and
8. WHEREAS, the University of Wyoming Trustees will be voting on the final draft of the 9. Academic Plan on July 30, 1999.
10. THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming
11. that we feel student input was not effectively solicited until the first draft of the 12. Academic Plan was released on March 7, 1999; and
13. THEREFORE, be it further resolved that ASUW was not adequately utilized, nor was 14. its role defined during the development process; and
15. THEREFORE, be it further resolved that ASUW be involved in all future aspects of the 16. academic planning process including further development and implementation through
17. a clearly defined role.

Referred to: Committee of the Whole
