If you sign up ahead of time or once you get there if it was a spur of the moment thing, please make sure you are signed up for those events. That makes it easy for whoever is coordinating the tabling (Senator Khan for Homecoming, COS Golden for Elections, etc.) able to know who was there and when in case anything happens. On top of that, please never leave tables unattended. Secondly, come get your shirts from my office and please only grab your size.

President Kaiser: If any media asks you for a comment, please forward those requests to President or Vice President. You cannot make comments as senators unless we have made a specific resolution. You can make statements as a student, but it has to be made clear that it is your opinion as a student.

VP Elwood: hours due this Friday, tabling sign up. Homecoming open house this Friday 1-3 in the office, good time to speak with alumni and show off ASUW. Please be respectful and courteous of any of our guests.
