

ASUW First-Year Senate Senator Application

Return Electronically to the ASUW Government Account at asuwgov@uwyo.edu

ASUW First-Year Senate is the official student government for first-year students at the University of Wyoming. As a First-Year Senator, you will work to make a difference in the student experience at the University of Wyoming, review and recommend ASUW legislative action, and connect and build relationships with students, faculty, administrators, and elected officials.

As a First-Year Senator, you will do the following:

1. Attend ASUW First-Year Senate Meetings on Tuesdays at 5:15pm.
2. Actively serve on one (1) ASUW First-Year Senate Standing Committee.
3. Actively serve on one (1) ASUW Senate Standing Committee.
4. Accumulate three (3) service hours per academic semester.
5. Attend two (2) events funded by ASUW per semester.
6. Attend one (1) ASUW meeting each semester.

Applications are electronically due via email to the ASUW Student Government asuwgov@uwyo.edu by Friday, September 6th at 11:59 pm. Following the application deadline, interviews may be scheduled with selected applicants.

For more information regarding ASUW First-Year Senate, requirements, etc., questions should be emailed to ASUW First-Year Senate Advisor Aidan McGuire at amcgui12@uwyo.edu or ASUW at asuwgov@uwyo.edu.
