

SENATE BILL #3

Title:           Distribution of Legislation Among Committees

Date:            January 24, 1997

Authors:       Senators Sauer, Wiese, and Wrede

Sponsors:     Senators Sauer, Wiese, Wrede, Stoltzfus, Jaraczski, Vetta, Bashor

1.     WHEREAS, current procedures require the steering of legislation to standing
2.     committees, according to their content in relation to a committee's description,
3.     as written in the Constitution; and,
4.     WHEREAS, Freshman Senate provides freshman students with the opportunity to 5.     experience the legislative process at all levels; and
6.     WHEREAS, a series of legislation can be referred to the same committee and thus
7.     indirectly exclude other committees from participating in a specific aspect of the 8.     legislative process.
9.     THEREFORE, be it enacted by the Freshman Senate of the Associated Students
10.    of the University of Wyoming that each piece of legislation introduced to the 11.    Freshman Senate be referred to a different standing committee, excluding the 12.    Executive Committee, until each committee has had the opportunity to act upon
13.    one piece of legislation, and thereafter all legislation will be directed to the 14.    appropriate committee.
