Rules:

1. Mandatory Candidate Workshop Session

- a. In the mandatory candidate workshop session, the ASUW OPE Chair, President, and professional staff will go over the rules for the 2022 ASUW Election. The mandatory session will be held Monday, March 21st, 2022 at 6:00 PM in the Senate Chambers.
- b. Candidates are not able to begin campaigning until after they attend the candidate workshop session.
 - i. Candidates who are unable to attend the candidate workshop session will be required to schedule a makeup session after the mandatory session. The candidates will only be able to begin campaigning after their makeup session.
- c. In cases of President and Vice President tickets, both candidates need to have attended the mandatory workshop before they start campaigning.

2. Campaign Materials

- a. Rules for campaign materials are outlined in Section 5.05 Subsection 1 of the ASUW Elections Policy.
- b. All political advertisements, campaign materials, and promotional materials, must include a disclaimer identifying who purchased or sponsored the material or advertisement.
 - i. Political advertisements, campaign materials, and promotional materials includes, but is not limited to, banners, posters, buttons, stickers, and food.
 - ii. The disclaimer must state either "funded by," "paid for by," or "sponsored by" the individual or group who purchased or supported in the purchase of the materials or advertisement.
 - iii. For example, if a senate candidate purchases a banner for their campaign and they pay for half of the banner and their friend pays for the other half the disclaimer would need to say, "paid for by the candidate and friend" or "sponsored by the candidate and friend".
- c. Campaign materials in the residence halls must follow the rules and regulations set forth by the residence hall director. These rules will be collected by the ASUW Outreach, Programming, and Elections Committee and will be added to the 2022 Elections Code and distributed to all the candidates.

- d. If a candidate's campaign materials are in violation of the Campaign Materials Rules, their materials will be subject to removal following Judicial Council action.
- 3. Polling Places and Ballots
- a. All voting will be conducted with electronic online ballots unless technical difficulties make an online election impossible.
 - i. For students who do not have access to the appropriate technology paper ballots will be made available in the ASUW Office during the election.
 - ii. For students with disabilities, the ASUW Office will work with the student and DSS to make the appropriate accommodations.
 - b. For the purposes of this election, polling places will be considered as any university-operated computer lab and any computer station set up by the ASUW Elections Committee for the purpose of voting.
 - c. Students will be able to cast votes from any device connected to the Internet with access. These will not be considered polling places for this election.
- 4. Spending Limits
- a. President and Vice President tickets may spend up to $1,000.00 throughout the duration of the elections period.
 - b. Senate candidates may spend up to $100.00 throughout the duration of the elections period.
 - c. All spending must be tracked through the Financial Expense Reports.

Complaints and Sanctions:

1. Violations of the Elections Code or the Elections Policy will result in a complaint. Complaints can be filed by any member of the university community. This includes but is not limited to, staff, faculty, students, members of the ASUW Outreach, Programming, and Elections Committee and other candidates participating in the ASUW Elections.
2. All complaints must be submitted in writing to the ASUW Judicial Council via email (asuwc@uwyo.edu) using the Complaint/Referral Form. The complaint form can be found on the ASUW Judicial Council's website (<http://www.uwyo.edu/asuw/about-us/judicial-branch/index.html>) or on the ASUW Elections website. (<http://www.uwyo.edu/asuw/how-to-get-involved/elections/index.html>).
3. The ASUW Judicial Council will consider all complaints following the procedures outlined in Sections 4.01, 4.03 and 4.04 of the Judicial Council's Rules and Procedures. The Rules and Procedures for the Judicial Council can be found in full on the Judicial Council's website (<http://www.uwyo.edu/asuw/about-us/judicial-branch/index.html>) and Sections 4.01, 4.03 and 4.04 are attached to the end of this document.
4. Once the Judicial Council has completed the hearing process, the Judicial Council may impose sanctions for all officially written complaints and violations. In addition, the Judicial Council may also impose sanctions against the complainant should the Judicial Council feel that the complainant has intentionally filed an erroneous complaint.

Financial Expense Reports:

1. The Financial Expense Reports are an itemized statement of expenses incurred during a candidate's or ticket's campaign, and must include the following criteria:
 - a. All items purchased by a candidate or ticket must be included on the Financial Expense Report at retail value.

- b. All items or services that are donated to a candidate or ticket must be included on the Financial Expense Report at retail value.
 - i. For example, if a candidate gets the owner of stickers.com to donate stickers to them, the candidate would list the retail price of the stickers on their Financial Expense Report and the retail price of the stickers would be counted towards their spending limit.
 - c. Receipts for all expenses must be included in the Financial Expense Report. If, a receipt is unavailable, the candidate must note the lack of a receipt and list the exact amount of the expense. If the exact amount for an expense is unknown, the candidate or ticket are expected to accurately estimate the retail value of the expense. All efforts should be taken to ensure the financial expense report is accurate.
 2. If no expenses were incurred by a candidate or ticket, they are still required to submit a Financial Expense Report that shows that no expenses were incurred.
 3. Separate Financial Expense Reports must be submitted for each campaign a candidate is running.
 - a. If a candidate is running for both a Senate position, and on a President and Vice President ticket they are required to submit a separate Financial Expense Report for each campaign.
 4. President and Vice President tickets are required to submit one Financial Expense Report for their campaign.
 5. The Financial Expense Report form and an example Financial Expense Report are provided on the ASUW Elections Website (<http://www.uwyo.edu/asuw/how-to-get-involved/elections/index.html>).
 6. Financial Expense Reports must be submitted to the ASUW Accountant before 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 19th, 2022.
 7. Financial Expense Reports filed after Tuesday, April 19th, 2022 are subject to review by the ASUW Accountant and the Judicial Council.

Endorsements:

1. For the purposes of the ASUW Elections there will be two classifications of endorsements: financial endorsements and public endorsements.
2. Financial endorsements are all items or services that are donated to a candidate or ticket.
 - a. Financial endorsements must be included in the Financial Expense Report as outlined above.
3. Public endorsements are statements of support for a candidate from a Student Organization or other campus entity.
 - a. As an example, if the Knitting Club would like to support a candidate, they can make a statement that says, "The Knitting Club supports this candidate for ASUW Senate."
4. No members of the ASUW Executive Branch, Elections Committee, or Business Office can endorse any candidate or ticket.
 - a. Members of these groups can be a candidate and can campaign for themselves or their ticket. However, their campaigning must not interfere with their official duties in ASUW.
5. Endorsements are outlined in Section 5.05 of the Elections Policy.

Candidate Printing Fund:

1. To help lower the financial barriers to run in the ASUW Elections, the ASUW Senate has created the Candidate Printing Fund to help candidates pay for printing expenses.
2. Each candidate for Senate will be allowed to use $55 to help cover printing expenses. Each President/VP ticket shall be allowed to use $100. This can be used to print campaign posters, handouts, or other printed materials. Individuals who are candidates for both shall only be allowed to use the $100 allocated for President/VP tickets.
3. All printed materials using the Candidate Printing Fund must be printed at the UW Copy and Print Center.
4. All materials funded by the Candidate Printing Fund must have the disclaimer “Funded by ASUW” on the material. No materials may say “sponsored” or “endorsed” by ASUW. ASUW does not support any candidate.
5. The printing cost must be reported on the candidate’s Financial Expense Reports and counts toward their spending limit.
6. Additional information on the Candidate Printing Fund will be supplied during the Mandatory Candidate Workshop Session.

ASUW Elections Policy

1. The ASUW Elections Policy includes additional rules and procedures that are important for all candidates to know and understand.
2. The ASUW Elections Policy is Article 5 of the ASUW Bylaws, the full ASUW Bylaws can be found on the ASUW Website with the ASUW working documents (http://www.uwyo.edu/asuw/about-us/legislative-branch/senate/_asuw-working-documents/index.html). These sessions must be open to the campus' style and programming will be at the discretion of the Committee.
- D. The results of the voting in each election, including the number of votes received by each candidate, shall be released by the Committee after they have been announced by the ASUW Advisor.
- E. The Committee along with the ASUW Advisors are authorized to determine the software needed to conduct voting and to count all ballots of the elections according to the principles of Instant-Runoff Voting for the ASUW President and Vice President election and Approval Voting for the ASUW Senatorial Election.
- F. The Committee will work in collaboration with the ASUW Advisor to ensure that all candidates adhere to all rules outlines in both this Article and the Elections Code.
- G. The Chair of the Committee will be responsible for communicating all official elections information through the ASUW elections email.

- H. Other responsibilities and authorities of the Elections Committee are outlined throughout this article.

2. Composition

- A. The Chair of the Outreach, Programming, and Elections Committee cannot run for any position in a General Election they are overseeing.
 - a. Should the Chair of the Committee decide to run for a Senate position they can remain Chair with the approval of the ASUW Senate before the filing deadline. This approval will require a 4/5 vote of confidence by the Senate.
- B. No member of the Committee can run for President or Vice President in the ASUW Student Representative Elections.
- C. If a member of the Committee wishes to declare their candidacy for President or Vice-President, they must resign as a member of the Committee in order to officially declare their candidacy before filing closes.

Section 5.02 ASUW Advisor

1. Responsibility and Authority

- A. The ASUW Advisor can delegate any of their responsibilities within this Article to the Chair of the Outreach, Programming, and Elections Committee or to any members of the ASUW Business Office who are not running in the ASUW Election. If the ASUW Advisor position is vacant, the members of the ASUW Business Office will assume the responsibilities outlined for the ASUW Advisor.
- B. The ASUW Advisor along with the Outreach, Programming, and Elections Committee is authorized to determine the software needed to count all ballots of the elections according to the principles of Approval and Instant-Runoff Voting.
- C. The ASUW Advisor will be responsible for compiling the list of eligible voters prior to the opening of voting.
- D. The ASUW Advisor shall ensure that no speech, advertisement, or any other related activity pertaining to the current election and its respective races occurs inside the ASUW Office or at official ASUW functions, other than those sponsored and conducted by the Elections Committee.
- E. The ASUW Advisor will work in collaboration with the Elections Committee to ensure that all candidates adhere to the Elections Code.
- F. All votes will be counted, tabulated, and announced by the ASUW Advisor following the procedures outlined in Section 5.03 of this Article .
- G. The ASUW Advisor will be responsible for hosting the candidate workshop to explain the elections rules on the date applications are due at a time and place to be announced by the ASUW Outreach, Programming, and Elections Committee.
- H. The ASUW Advisor will be responsible for enforcing any sanctions put on candidates by the Judicial Council.

- I. Other responsibilities and authorities of the ASUW Advisor are outlined throughout this Article.

Section 5.03 Criteria for General Elections

1. Definition:
 - A. An ASUW Election shall be considered a General Election if it conforms to all of the following criteria: A general election must be initiated by the ASUW Senate with a two-thirds (2/3) vote in affirmation. Matters to be considered in a general election can be brought before the ASUW Senate by any student. Whereupon a general election is initiated, the Elections Committee shall be vested with both the power to determine when the election will be held and the responsibility of coordinating the election.
 - B. All University of Wyoming fee-paying students shall be able to vote.
 - C. Voting shall be open for a minimum of 72 hours, and the election shall be advertised for no less than 10 business days prior to taking place.
 - D. Pre-approval by the ASUW Advisor or, if vacant, a designee determined by the Dean of Students Office, after the Senate has initiated.
2. While there may be multiple general elections per academic year, if, for example, it is necessary to receive approval to amend the ASUW Constitution, an election in which candidate for the ASUW Senate, the ASUW President, and the ASUW Vice President shall be held only once per academic year. This shall be called the ASUW Student Representative Election. This is the only election in which these candidates may be elected.

Section 5.04 Process for ASUW Student Representative Elections

1. An ASUW Student Representative Election shall be defined as the election in which ASUW Senators, the ASUW President, and the ASUW Vice President are elected. An ASUW Student Representative Election is a type of general election, and thus ballot initiatives may also be voted on.
2. The remainder of this section outlines the process solely for a Student Representative Election, and shall not be construed so as to be binding on other elections that may take place.
3. Applications:
 - a. Applications will be created by the Elections Committee and monitored by the ASUW Advisor.
 - b. Applications will be made available to all ASUW Members no sooner than the start date of the spring semester as outlined by the Office of Academic Affairs
 - c. The filing deadline for all applications will be no later than 4:30 p.m. on a date that is no less than three (3) weeks following the release of the applications.
 - d. All candidates who submit applications after the filing deadline will be considered write-in candidates.

- e. All dates related to the applications will be decided by the Elections Committee and must be included in the Elections Code.

4. Candidate Workshop

- a. The candidate workshop will be scheduled planned and hosted by the ASUW Advisor and will be used to explain the elections, process, rules, and dates to all candidates.
- b. All candidates will be required to attend the candidate workshop. Candidates who are unable to attend the workshop must inform the ASUW Advisor prior to the workshop and will be required to attend a makeup session.
- c. The candidate workshop will be held after the filing deadline on the same day.

5. Ballots

- a. The names listed on the ballot will include all qualified President and Vice President tickets and all qualified Senate candidates. The names of write-in candidates will not be included on the ballot.
- b. The ballot will include an appropriate photo and statement submitted by each candidate. The length of the candidate statements will be set by the Elections Committee and must be included in the Elections Code. Photos will be deemed appropriate at the discretion of the Elections Committee and the ASUW Advisor.
- c. The order of candidates on the ballots will be determined by a random drawing conducted by the ASUW Advisor as soon as possible.
- d. All voting will be conducted using electronic online ballots.
 - i. The use of alternative voting methods is permitted and will be development by the ASUW Advisor and the Elections Committee and use of such methods will be at the discretion of the ASUW Advisor.
- e. Should an initiative be included on the ballot it must follow the procedures outlined in Section 5.07.

6. Elections

- a. The elections will be held no less than four (4) weeks after the filing deadline and the elections end date must allow for at least one (1) regular senate meeting to be held before the spring semester finish date as outlined by the Office of the Registrar.
- b. The Elections Committee shall make an effort to provide a two (2) week transition period between administrations.
- c. Twenty-one (21) total Senators will be elected. These seats will all be at-large, and will not represent any particular college or school, but instead all students at the University of Wyoming.

7. Voting Methods

- a. Subsection 7.01 President and Vice President

- i. Any ASUW Member will be permitted to vote at any polling place or by voting online.
 - ii. Voting must be open between seventy-two (72) and ninety (90) hours.

 - i. Any ASUW Member will be permitted to vote at any polling place or by voting online.
 - ii. Voting must be open between seventy-two (72) and ninety (90) hours.
 - iii. Voting for Senatorial candidates will be conducted according to the principles of Approval Voting and thus voters will be allowed to indicate whether or not they "approve" of every single candidate running in the election.
 - iv. Those who receive the highest number of approval votes shall be elected, until at such point either all candidates have been elected or all the seats are filled.
 - v. Write-in candidates may be elected, if they receive sufficient support.
 - vi. Polling places will be considered as any computer station set up by the ASUW Elections Committee for the purpose of voting, and any other locations determined as polling areas by the Elections Committee.
 - vii. Other polling stations will be clearly identified, and all candidates will be informed of what constitutes such as polling areas.
 - viii. Personal internet connected devices such as phones, tablets, calculators, and computers are not typically considered as a polling place unless they are being used within a predefined polling area.

8. Results

- a. Voting results shall be tabulated by the ASUW Advisor using the method they deem most efficient and effective.

- b. No voting information shall be available until the ASUW Advisor has finished tabulating all ballots. With the approval of the ASUW Advisor the Elections Committee can publish current vote tallies up to twenty-four (24) hours before voting closes.
 - c. The results of voting in each election shall be announced by the ASUW Advisor at a location chosen by the Election Committee within (24) hours of when the elections results are available.
 - d. Any write-in candidate or ticket who wins an election must fulfil the write-in candidate requirements outlined in Section 5.04 Subsection 3 and must abide by the campaign rules outline in Section 5.05.
 - e. The order of replacement seats in the case of a resignation in the Senate shall be determined by reverse order of elimination from the election.
9. Financial Expense Reports:
- a. The Financial Expense Report Form will be provided by Elections Committee on the same date applications are made available.
 - b. The Financial Expense Reports are an itemized statement of expenses incurred during a candidate's or ticket's campaign, and must include the following criteria:
 - i. Items or services that are donated to the candidate must be included in the expense statement at retail value. All copying and printing costs (including those made in University labs or on personal printers) must be included.
 - ii. Receipts for all expenditures must be attached to the expense statement. If for any reason a receipt is unavailable, the candidate must note the lack of receipt on the expense statement. If the exact amount for expenditures is not known, candidates are expected to accurately estimate the cost involved.
 - c. The submission deadline for Financial Expense Reports shall be determined by the Elections Committee on a date that is at least three (3) days prior to the inauguration of the incoming administration.

Section 5.05 Candidate Requirements

1. Senator Candidates

- A. A candidate for Senator must meet the following requirements:
