I. THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES POLICY

The policies outlined in this document apply to the 2027 fiscal year. All prior approvals of fees, charges, and deposits are repealed effective July 1, 2026, except as to rights or obligations previously acquired or incurred thereunder.

The fees, charges, fines, penalties, refunds, and deposits are subject to change without notice.

Publication of fees, charges, refunds, and deposits in the University of Wyoming Fee Book is required before charging fees. Exceptions may be granted by the Vice President for Budget & Finance.

Authority

The Trustees of the University of Wyoming, a constitutional body, are responsible for the "management of the university" (Wyoming Constitution, Article 7, 17). The Trustees "possess all the powers necessary or convenient to accomplish the objects and perform the duties prescribed by law and shall have custody of the books, records, buildings and all other property of the university" (W.S. 21-17-203). The Trustees may "(e)xpend the income placed under their control from whatever source derived, and exercise all other functions properly belonging to such a board and necessary to the prosperity of the university and all its departments" (W.S. 21-17-204).

Per the University of Wyoming Regulation 7-11, "Student tuition, fees, and charges (“Fees”) and related policies and procedures shall be established by the Board of Trustees in the University Fee Book. The President, through the Office of Financial Affairs, shall maintain and publish the Fee Book."

Therefore, pursuant to constitutional and statutory provisions, the Trustees are responsible for the establishment of all fees, charges, and deposits assessed, and refunds afforded to individuals applying for admission to the university, enrolled students, university employees, and the general public. Such fees shall be reasonable and prudent for the adequate protection and control of university funds, equipment, facilities, services, and materials.

In order to give advance notice to all those affected by prospective fee increases, the Board of Trustees adopts that the Administration will recommend that the Consolidated Student Services, Student Success, Athletics, Transit, and ASUW portion of the Student Mandatory Fee will be increased by the same percentage increase for resident undergraduate base tuition for each academic year. Administration may recommend fee increases or decreases to certain fees when the indexed fee is not appropriate.

Financial Assistance

Financial assistance students receive through the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid will be applied to assessed tuition and mandatory fees, then to other university-assessed fees and charges, before being distributed to the student. If the student receives federal financial aid, they may (in writing) limit the use of financial aid to only tuition payments, mandatory fees, and university housing charges.

Failure to Pay Fees, Charges, Fines, Penalties

A student failing to pay fees, charges, fines, penalties, or deposits as prescribed by the Trustees of the University of Wyoming shall be denied registration at the university or copies of transcripts until such fees, charges, fines, penalties, or deposits are paid in full. A non-student failing to pay fees, charges, fines, penalties, or deposits as prescribed by the Trustees of the University of Wyoming shall be denied use of university facilities and services until such fees, charges, fines, penalties, or deposits are paid in full. Procedures for adjudication of disputes over payment of fees, charges, fines, penalties, or deposits shall be prescribed by the Vice President for Budget & Finance.

Interest rates for 1) loan funds established by the University of Wyoming; and 2) loan funds established by the State of Wyoming without statutory interest rates shall be established at a six percent (6%) annual percentage rate with a two percent (2%) annual percentage rate penalty for loan default.

Loans from loan funds established by trust agreement, will, or similar instrument with no stipulated interest rate shall not accrue interest, but will carry a Loan Advance fee of two percent (2%) of the loan amount.

Interest rates for the Medical School Student Loan Program and Family Practice Residency Loan Program shall be consistent with Trustee actions on student loan interest rates prescribed by the Trustees on July 9, 1985, and November 9, 1985.

The interest rate for the Medical Student Contract Support Program shall be consistent with the actions of the 1993 (52nd) General Session of the State of Wyoming Legislature (Wyoming Statute, Chapter 203).

The interest rate for the Superior Student in Education Loan Program shall be consistent with Trustee action on student loan interest rates (April 11, 1985) and established at a six percent (6%) annual percentage rate with a two percent (2%) annual percentage rate penalty for loan default.

Fees, Charges, and Deposits, Student Media

The Trustees delegate the authority for the establishment of advertising, subscription, and related rates or charges for student media, including the Branding Iron, Frontiers Magazine, and Owen Wister Review, to the Student Media Board. Rates or charges established by the Student Media Board shall be filed annually with the Office of the Vice President for Budget & Finance and published in the Fee Book.

Internal Fees, Charges, and Deposits

The Vice President for Budget & Finance, with approval by the Trustees, is authorized to establish fees, charges, or deposits for interdepartmental purposes. In no case shall the assessment of such fee, charge, or deposit exceed the direct cost plus reasonable administrative overhead.

Other Provisions

The purpose of this policy is to allow University departments to recover direct costs, and reasonable indirect costs, for use of University facilities, equipment, services, or materials as set forth in the following paragraph.

The Trustees' authority to establish fees is delegated to the Vice President for Budget & Finance to set casual food service rates in the University food service operations, resale of items in the University Bookstore, various telecommunication rates, and other resale activities. Fees will not be authorized for items, nor shall this provision be construed in any way to avoid the Trustees' authority to establish fees.

Employee Tuition and Fee Waiver

Full-time, benefitted employees may enroll for one course up to six (6) semester hours of University enrollment in college credit courses (including Distance courses) during each regular semester and summer semester with no cost for tuition and mandatory fees to the employee.

For additional information, see UW Regulation 7-11.

High School Guest Students Fee Waiver

High School Guest Students may enroll in classes at the University of Wyoming and will not be charged mandatory fees.

Wyoming Senior Citizen Students

Students aged 65 and over may enroll for one course up to six (6) semester hours of University enrollment in college credit courses (including Distance courses) during each regular semester and summer semester with no cost for tuition and mandatory fees. Wyoming Senior Citizen students are admitted to the University on a space-available basis, and student benefits are not available.

For additional information, see UW Regulation 7-11

IIA. SCHEDULES OF TUITION, MANDATORY FEES, AND REFUNDS

Regular Academic Year Tuition and Mandatory Fees

Tuition

The tuition policy of the Trustees for the 2027 fiscal year includes the following:
Tuition is established to support instruction at the University. Laboratory and special course fees authorized separately by the Trustees are excluded from tuition.

a. Student account balances will be due in full by the following dates per term: Fall charges due September 15, Spring charges due February 15, and Summer charges due June 1. Installment payment plans will be available for all charges.
b. Graduate Fellows and Graduate Assistants employed for 10.0 hours or more weekly will be assessed tuition at the resident rate for each regular term semester during which they are so employed.
c. Graduate students qualifying for resident tuition in both the fall and spring semesters will be assessed resident tuition for the immediately following summer term.
d. Graduate students NOT on Assistantship may enroll in Continuous Registration 5920 and 5940. Tuition will be assessed at $120 per credit hour on these courses only. Mandatory fees may be applicable.
e. Student classification for fee purposes (and reduced tuition rates) is addressed in Trustee Regulation VIII C.
f. Full-time refers to undergraduate and pharmacy students enrolled in 12 or more credit hours, and graduate and law students enrolled in 9 or more credit hours.
g. All tuition and/or surcharges are subject to rounding for determining hourly rates.

Mandatory Fees

Mandatory fees are assessed to each main campus program student during the regular academic year and are to be paid with tuition as follows:

- ASUW: As the only fee directly managed by students, the ASUW fee supports a variety of student services, including but not limited to content-neutral funding of student organizations' events, competitions, conference registrations, and start-up marketing. ASUW also funds Student Legal Services, outreach initiatives, including prize and food giveaways, and ASUW-sponsored programs. ASUW provides direct funding for student scholarships. The fee also supports UW students employed by ASUW, staff salaries, professional development, and ASUW business operations. ASUW students provide perspectives and advocate in applicable UW committees and to upper administration, serve in an ex officio capacity on the Board of Trustees, and communicate with external stakeholders regarding student issues.
- Consolidated Student Services: The fee supports the operations, programs, functions, marketing, assessment, staffing, and professional development for units within the Division of Student Affairs. It funds graduate students, support groups, student events, leadership and service programs; food security, student conduct, welfare, and violence prevention efforts; access to recreation facilities and programs, counseling services, disability coordinators, and health services; equipment repair and replacement, building enhancements, safety upgrades, and maintenance. Specific units include Alcohol Wellness Alternatives, Research, and Education (AWARE), Counseling Center, Campus Recreation, Disability Support Services, Student Health Services, Student Success & Graduation, Residence Life Resident Education, Food Security, Restorative Justice, Violence Prevention, Dean of Students, Native American Education, Research and Cultural Center (NAERCC), Service, Leadership and Community Engagement (SLCE), Student Organizations, 7220 Entertainment, Fraternity & Sorority Life, Center for Student Involvement & Leadership (CSIL) Marketing, Union Events and Reservations, Union Information Desk, Student Technical Services, Veterans Service Center, Pokes Pub & Game Room and the Wyoming Union.

- Intercollegiate Athletics: The income is specified for the support of Intercollegiate Athletics, and provides students enrolled in 6 or more credits with free admission to all University intercollegiate athletic events on campus, excluding tournament events.
- Theatre & Dance: The fee supports the Theatre and Dance department operations and programs.
- Recycling: The fee supports the Wyoming recycling program.
- Student Media: The fee supports the publications (Branding Iron, student planner, Owen Wister Review, Frontiers Magazine, Transitions Orientation Guide, and Laramie Living), operations, functions, staffing (hiring, retention, and training), supplies, programs, and marketing of Student Media.
- Student Success: The fee is specified for the support of Student Success and Graduation, STEP Student Success and Learning Resources, Writing Center, Graduate Student Development, Student Success technology, Student advising coordination, Center for Advising and Career Services training, certification, and development.
- Transit Fee: The income is specified for the support of the university transit system operations and to assist with capital funding for bus replacement.
- Special program fees are assessed in addition to the fees shown here.

Block Tuition

Beginning the fall 2023 semester, the University adopted block tuition. Student fees still apply in addition to block tuition rates. Some programs are excluded from the block tuition rates, see exclusion section. Block tuition is only charged for fall and spring semesters, and summer tuition rates will be charged per credit hour, block tuition rates are as follows.

Undergraduate students with 12-18 credit hours will be charged the block rate.

- Undergraduate resident main campus students block rate = $2,805.00 per semester
- Undergraduate resident online students block rate = $3,225.00 per semester
- Undergraduate non-resident main campus students block rate = $11,235.00 per semester
- Undergraduate non-resident online students block rate = $5,820.00 per semester
- Students taking more than 18 credits will be charged the block rate for the first 18 hours, and then per credit for any additional hours, based on residency.

Graduate students with 9 to 12 credit hours will be charged the block rate.

- Graduate resident main campus and online students block rate = $3,630.00 per semester
- Graduate non-resident main campus students block rate = $10,670.00 per semester
- Graduate non-resident online students block rate = $5,790.00 per semester
- Students taking more than 12 credits will be charged the block rate for the first 12 hours, and then per credit for any additional hours, based on residency.

Exclusions to Block Tuition

Students in the College of Law, Pharmacy, MBA programs, College of Business non-MBA programs, MPA, Land Survey, DNP, BRAND, MS in Health Services, MS in Speech Pathology, Dental Hygiene, RN-BSN distance program, Distance MA English, and College of Education graduate online programs will be excluded from the block tuition and charged per credit based on their specific tuition rates, per the table.

Exemptions to Block Tuition

Full-time students enrolled in at least 12 credit hours who cannot enroll in 15 hours may also be eligible for an exemption from the block tuition. Completion of the electronic exemption form and submission of appropriate documentation is required each semester by the first day of classes. A list of exemptions can be found at www.uwyo.edu/fsbo/student-financial-services/block-tuition.html

Other Tuition and Mandatory Fees

Concurrent Joint Enrollment

Concurrent Joint Enrollment: A student enrolled in one or more UW course(s) and in one or more off-campus credit courses during the same academic term.

The total hours of concurrent joint enrollment shall be used to determine the student's part-time or full-time status for financial aid purposes.

Any concurrently jointly enrolled student will be eligible to participate in the Optional Student Fee Package program.

Visitor's Fee

Members of the public who are not otherwise enrolled in university courses and who are not University employees may visit classes taught as part of a University course. To visit any number of classes taught in a specified section of a course during a specified semester, an individual must (1) secure written permission from the instructor and (2) pay the visitor's fee.

Visitor's Fee	FY 2027
Visitor's fee, per course	25.00

Optional Student Fee Package

The Optional Student Fee Package is available to all part-time or online students, excluding employees exercising their employee fee benefit privileges. Part-time students electing to enroll in the student medical insurance program must also purchase the Optional Student Fee Package; to be eligible for the student medical insurance program, a student must be enrolled at least half-time. Online students do not qualify for the student medical insurance program. The Optional Student Fee Package entitles the student to the following full-time student benefits: eligibility for services of the Student Health Service, access to Recreational activities, and admission to intercollegiate athletic events.

Purchase of the Optional Student Fee Package does not classify you as a full-time student for purposes of full-time equivalent status in the Registrar's Office (i.e., loan certification, government statistics, etc.) unless you fit into one of the following two categories:

> (a) master's candidates who have a program of study on file in the Graduate School, who have completed at least 90% of the coursework for the master's degree, are working full time on his/her thesis or Plan B paper (certified by major professor and department head), and are enrolled for at least 1 hour; or
> (b) doctoral candidates who have a program of study on file, who have successfully completed the preliminary examination, are working full-time on his/her dissertation or research project (certified by major professor and department head), and are enrolled for at least 1 hour.

Students who fit within the two special categories described above must fill out the Petition for the Optional Student Fee Package regardless of whether they have an assistantship or not in order to receive the full-time student benefits. If these students also wish to purchase student medical insurance, they must contact the Risk Management and Insurance office to complete the necessary paperwork after the petition has been approved and before the insurance enrollment period ends for the semester.

The master's candidate is eligible to participate in the Optional Student Fee Package for a period not to exceed two (2) consecutive academic terms (excluding summer sessions). The doctoral candidate is eligible to participate in the Optional Student Fee Package for a period not to exceed three (3) consecutive academic terms (excluding summer sessions).

The optional Student Fee Package includes Intercollegiate Athletics and Consolidated Student Services (including Student Health Service and Campus Recreation).

Optional Student Fee Package, per semester	FY 2027
Consolidated Student Services- Includes Intercollegiate Athletics, student health service, and campus recreation (including the campus recreation bond issuance).	521.33

Refunds and/or Cancellations of Tuition and Fees

Refund Policy

The refund policy of the Trustees for the 2027 fiscal year is as follows:

- a. Mandatory fees, program fees, advising, and other course fees are not refundable after the drop period (i.e., calendar day 10 for a 16-week course).
- b. Tuition will be refunded and/or canceled, in accordance with the Institutional Refund Policy, to students who formally do an all-school withdrawal from the University or drop all classes after registration. Charges will be canceled in accordance with the schedule for students who complete an all-school withdrawal before payment is made.
- c. c. Tuition will be refunded and/or canceled per the Institutional Refund Policy to students who formally change status (e.g., from nonresident to resident or full-time to part-time).
- d. Tuition and fee refunds due to students with other debts owed to the University will be distributed to those outstanding debts before disbursement to the student.

The Vice President for Budget & Finance, or his/her designee, may authorize refunds and/or cancellations inconsistent with these policies in unusual and infrequent circumstances and only when such actions are in the University's best interest.

Institutional Refund Policy

The following refunds apply only to all-school withdrawals. After the 100% period, no refunds are provided for individual class withdrawals.

Academic Year 2027 – 16 Week Courses

Before the first day of the semester	100%
Calendar Day 1-10	100%
Calendar Day 11-17	75%
Calendar Day 18-22	50%
Calendar Day 23-27	25%
Calendar Day 28 and on	0%
Academic Year 2027 – 8 Week Courses
Before the first day of classes	100%
Calendar Day 1-4	100%
Calendar Day 5-9	50%
Calendar Day 10-19	25%
Calendar Day 20 on-	0%

Examples of these calculations are available in Student Financial Services

Federal Return of Funds Policy

A student who receives federal financial aid (other than Federal Work Study paychecks) and chooses to complete less than 60% of an academic term is considered not to have earned all the federal aid s/he has been awarded.

- If aid already disbursed is equal to earned aid, no further action is required.
- If aid already disbursed is less than earned aid, additional aid may be offered to the student after s/he withdraws.
- If aid already disbursed is greater than earned aid, UW and/or the student must return some federal funds.

To determine whether federal funds have been earned or must be returned, UW will follow this procedure:

Step 1: Determine the percentage of the term the student completed. This is calculated by dividing the number of calendar days (including weekends) in a term into the number of calendar days that the student was in attendance for that term.

Step 2: Apply the percentage of time attended to the total amount of federal aid the student was eligible to receive for the term. This is the student's "earned aid."

Step 3: Subtract the amount of earned aid from the amount of aid actually disbursed to the student. A positive remainder is the student's "unearned aid." A negative remainder is the student's "earned aid" that may still be offered to the student.

Step 4: Determine the amount of unearned aid that UW must repay. Multiply the institutional charges by the percentage of unearned aid and compare this figure to the total unearned aid. UW will repay the lesser amount.

Step 5: Determine the amount of unearned aid remaining that the student must repay. Subtract the amount of unearned aid repaid by the institution from the total amount of unearned aid.

All unearned aid will be returned to the federal student loan lender or federal aid accounts in the following order:

Unsubsidized Stafford Loan
Subsidized Stafford Loan
Federal PLUS (Parent) Loan
Federal Pell Grant
Federal SEOG Grant

Any amount the student owes on a grant will be reduced by 50%.

The date of a student's withdrawal from UW will be the date the student notifies the Dean of Students of intent to withdraw. When a student fails to officially withdraw from UW, we assume the withdrawal date is the midpoint of the semester or the last date of documented academic activity.

UW will repay the lesser of (1) the total amount of unearned aid, or (2) an amount equal to the student's institutional charges multiplied by the percentage of unearned aid. "Institutional charges" are defined as charges for tuition and fees, plus room and board charges for students living in UW residence halls and apartments. It does not include charges such as bookstore fees, student medical insurance premiums, parking citations, or library fines.

The amount of unearned aid owed by the student on a loan may be repaid under the loan's normal repayment terms. Any unearned grant aid the student owes must be repaid immediately.

Any amount of earned aid not yet disbursed to the student will be offered to the student. Such offers will cover any undisbursed grants first, followed by undisbursed loans.

Examples of how we calculate the amount of unearned federal aid a student must return are available from a professional adviser in the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid. A chart detailing the percentage of earned and unearned aid, by calendar day of the semester, is published in the online Class Schedule for each semester. In brief, to determine the percentage of earned federal aid, divide the total number of calendar days in the term by the total number of calendar days the student attended.

Interaction of Federal Return of Funds Policy and Institutional Refund Policy

When a student who receives federal financial aid withdraws from the university, s/he may owe a repayment of federal funds and/or be due a refund from UW, or owe an additional amount to UW.

The Federal Return of Funds policy will be applied before any refund due under the UW policy is disbursed. For details on applying these policies to a specific situation, please consult with the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid, 174 Knight Hall phone (307) 766-2116.

IIB. Summer Session

Summer Session - Course, Tuition, and Mandatory Fees

Tuition, Summer 2027

The tuition policy of the Trustees for the 2027 Summer Session is as follows:

a) Tuition is established to support the costs of enrolling in a University class, excluding laboratory and special course fees authorized by the Trustees.
b) All charges for the summer term are due by June 1. A payment plan is available online. Past-due balances will be charged at an 18% APR.
c) Graduate Fellows and Graduate Assistants employed for 10.0 hours or more weekly will be assessed tuition at the resident rate for each regular term semester during which they are employed. Graduate students qualifying for resident tuition in both the fall and spring semesters will be assessed resident tuition for the immediately following summer term.
d) Graduate students NOT on Assistantship may enroll in Continuous Registration 5920 and 5940. Tuition for these courses will be $120 per credit hour, and mandatory fees may apply.
e) Trustee Regulation VIII C addresses Student classification for fee purposes (and reduced tuition rates).

Mandatory Fees, Summer 2027

Mandatory fees assessed during the 2027 Summer Session will be based on whether the student is enrolled in a main campus program, regardless of the class modality. Fees are to be paid with tuition and will be assessed as follows:

For students enrolled in one or more Laramie campus classes (and applied to total enrollment):

- ASUW: The fee supports the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming operations and programs.
- Consolidated Student Services: The fee supports (AWARE) Alcohol Wellness Alternatives, Research, and Education; Counseling Center, Fraternity and Sorority Life; Multicultural Affairs, recreation facilities and programs; student activities, leadership, and service programs; Student Conduct and investigations; Student Health Service; Student Welfare Programs; University Disability Support Services; Wellness Center operations and programs; Food Security; Violence Prevention; and Wyoming Union operations, and repairs.
- Theatre & Dance: The fee supports the Theatre & Dance department operations and programs.
- Recycling: The fee supports the Wyoming recycling program.
- Student Media: The fee supports the Branding Iron, Owen Wister Review, Frontiers magazine, and other student publications.
- Student Success: The fee is specified for the support of Student Success and Graduation, STEP Student Success and Learning Resources, Writing Center, Graduate Student Development, Student Success technology, Student advising coordination, Center for Advising and Career Services training, certification, and development.

Summer session students who are enrolled and pay the Consolidated Student Services Fee have access to Campus Recreation, Student Health, and the University Counseling Center for the entire summer.

Students enrolled in the spring semester and pre-registered for the fall semester, but not enrolling in the summer session, will be eligible to pay the Consolidated Student Services Fee, which provides access to Campus Recreation, Student Health, and the University Counseling Center for the entire summer. These students also have the option to purchase summer access to only Campus Recreation and/or Student Health by paying the individual fee assessed for the summer term.

Mandatory Fees, Summer, Laramie Campus enrollment	FY 2027
Consolidated Student Services fee- Flat Rate	206.82
Student Success- Flat Rate	19.66

IIIA. Distance Education

Online Education Credit Programs- Course Tuition and Fees

The tuition policy of the Trustees for the 2027 fiscal year for credit programs delivered at a distance includes the following:

- Tuition, online student services fees, and delivery fees, including courses delivered through distance education, are established to support the costs of instruction in a UW credit course delivered outside the UW-Laramie campus, excluding laboratory and special course fees authorized by the Trustees and defined in Section I of this Fee Book.
- The per-credit online/distance enrollment fee will provide the financial resources to improve existing courses, improve online student services and support, and create online degree and certificate pathways. Specifically, the fee will fund:
    1. Instructional capacity, an increase in available online sections, and new online courses

2. Development of rigorous online degree and certificate pathways meeting HLC expectations
3. Expanded online student recruitment and retention services (enrollment, advising, tutoring, testing, career services, and scholarships)
4. Training for online instruction, including accessibility support
5. Support of existing and enhanced online education technology

- Undergraduate students will be charged a $10.25/credit Advising Fee for all courses.
- Mandatory campus fees are not assessed to students enrolled in Distance Education Programs (UW at a Distance and UW-Casper).
- Tuition is payable on the same payment schedule as the UW-Laramie campus.

Outside Agency Sponsored Course and Continuous Registration Course Registration Fee

Courses offered for University credit but for which the University incurs no instructional or delivery costs will be assessed a registration fee to cover administrative costs. These courses include:

- Courses offered for professional development and taught by non-UW employees, in which the content and instructors have received approval by appropriate University departments.
- Continuous Registration courses required of graduate students for the sole purpose of maintaining their degree candidacy when they are taking no other credits.
- Courses offered in partnership with the National Outdoor Leadership School (NOLS), and the University of Wyoming International Studies Peace Corps Option for University of Wyoming academic credit.

Not included are courses (other than Continuous Registration) in which the instructors are UW employees, regardless of the sources of remuneration for the instruction. Exceptions are possible only in cases where there is a compelling rationale, such as external funding that (a) is sufficient to cover the instructors' salary and benefits and (b) explicitly requires the delivery of credit-bearing curriculum for an administrative fee. Authorization for such exceptions is not automatic, and it requires prior written approval by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Dining Services/HAPC Training Table Weekly Meal Plan Eligibility

Student-athletes who are on at least 60% athletic scholarship are required to maintain meal plans at, or above, the levels described below. Additionally, these meal plan levels do not eliminate compliance with any other requirements that student-athletes may have, including but not limited to the New Student Live-In Policy.
Minimum meal plan requirements for student-athletes to be used at the HAPC Training Table:

- Unlimited 7-Day or Unlimited 5-Day Meal Plans: Required for all scholarship (athletic) football student-athletes residing in the residence halls.
- 14 Meals per Week Plan: Required for all scholarship (athletic) football student-athletes not living in the residence halls.
- 10 Meals per Week Plan: Required for all non-football head count scholarship (athletic) student-athletes (i.e., Men's Basketball, Women's Basketball, Tennis, and Volleyball).
- 8 Meals per Week Plan: Required for all equivalency student-athletes who are receiving a minimum of a 60% athletic scholarship.

Should a student lose "student-athlete" status during the contract period, this contract may be voided at the sole discretion of UW Athletics or Housing & Dining Services. If this contract is voided, the student may be required to sign a meal plan contract of equal or greater value at the Washakie Dining Center.

Residence Halls

Financial Policies: Each student contracting to live in the University residence halls during the academic year must comply with the following financial policies. Refer to the Housing Contract for specific procedures.

Application Fee: The application fee secures a room in the residence halls

a) Students who complete a housing application are required to remit a payment of $250.00 prior to completion of the online application. Of the $250.00 charge, $100.00 is a non-refundable Housing & Dining Services application processing fee. The remaining $150.00 is a housing deposit and will be applied toward the first-semester room charge on the student account. Any cancellations or deferments on or prior to May 1 are eligible for a refund of the $150.00 deposit. Cancellations or deferments after May 1 will forfeit the entire $250.00 remittance. Current residence hall students who complete a contract prior to the end of their existing year contract are not required to pay the $100.00 application fee, but will be required to remit the $150.00 housing deposit.

CONTRACT CANCELLATION AND DEPOSIT REFUNDS

Contract Cancellation
All cancellations must be in writing.

Payment Plans: Students entering into a contract with the Department of Housing will make payments defined by UW's Institutional payment plan. If there are any questions regarding this plan, please contact UW's Student Financial Services Office.

The room charge includes a gas/steam, water, electricity, computer lab access, and internet in the student rooms, which enables the student to connect to the University's computer network.

Semester Break Housing: The Housing Contract does not include housing between semesters. This lodging is contracted and charged on a per-night basis.

Contract Termination: In the event that a student is not officially released from their contract or is released for behavioral reasons, the student may be held responsible for up to 100% of the room and meal plan charges for the contract period remaining after the student moves from the premises.

Lost or Damaged Property: Lost or damaged University property may be billed to the resident at the current cost of replacement or repair. This includes unauthorized moving of University property.

Responsibilities and Rights Violations Residents found in violation of the Apartments & Residence Hall Policies & Procedures may be assessed a penalty of up to $500 for each violation, plus any actual damage or replacement costs. These violations include the unauthorized moving and/or modification of University property, violation of the pet policy, and violation of the fire safety policy.

Abandoned Property: Property left behind by residents following check-out and agreement termination is considered abandoned. The resident shall be charged for any costs incurred by moving or removing property from the premises. Abandoned items will be subject to UW disposal procedures. Materials of personal, biological, or environmentally hazardous nature may be disposed of immediately pursuant to W.S. 1-21-1210. Unlicensed, improperly licensed, or inoperable vehicles left in parking lots, at any time, will be towed away and disposed of at the owner's expense.

UW Apartments

Financial Policies: Each person applying to live in the University Apartments must comply with the financial policies outlined in the lease.

Application Fee: The application fee requests a specific type of apartment, but does not guarantee an apartment assignment.

Damage Deposit: The damage deposit secures the resident's obligations under the lease agreement. It is refunded when the agreement is terminated, per the terms of the University Apartments agreement. Cases of eviction resulting from failure to abide by the terms and conditions in the University Apartments agreement will result in forfeiture of the damage deposit.

Rent: The rent payment includes a social fee, local telephone service, water, trash disposal, appliances, electricity, gas, satellite cable television service, and hardwiring in the apartment for the University computer network access.

Disciplinary Eviction: If a resident is evicted from the University Apartments for disciplinary reasons, the resident may be responsible for paying all outstanding rent and other charges. Eviction may take place immediately upon notice. In the event of a disciplinary eviction, the entire deposit is forfeited.

Abandoned property: Property left behind by residents following check-out and agreement termination is considered abandoned. The resident shall be charged for any costs incurred by moving or removing property from the premises. Abandoned items will be subject to UW disposal procedures. Materials of personal, biological, or environmentally hazardous nature may be disposed of immediately pursuant to W.S. 1-21-1210. Unlicensed, improperly licensed, or inoperable vehicles left in parking lots, at any time, will be towed away and disposed of at the owner's expense.
Apartments & Residence Hall Policies & Procedures: Residents found in violation of the Apartments & Residence Hall Policies & Procedures may be assessed a penalty of up to $500 for each violation, plus any actual damage or replacement costs. These violations include violations of the pet policy and violations of safety/endangerment expectations.
