New Supplier Registration Portal Upgrade

Hello,

During the quarterly WyoCloud upgrade that finalized on February 23rd, the Supplier Self-Registration portal was upgraded. This process was finalized today and can now only be accessed through the new links that are provided on this page:

<https://www.uwyo.edu/procurement/supplier-guide/supplier-self-registration.html>

If you have any links saved that you would normally share with new suppliers, please delete those links, and refer all future new suppliers to the page above. If new suppliers are having any issues with the self-registration process, they should email new-supplier-request@uwyo.edu for assistance.

Thank you,
